Q. IV. What Preachers have DIED since the last Conference ?

A. 1. In Great Britain the nineteen following :—

(1.) JOHN WARD, SEN. He was early converted to God, but was not called into our itinerant ministry until rather late in life. He was a man of plain understanding, of deep and genuine piety, and of irreproachable life. As a Christian Minister, he was cordially attached to our doctrines and discipline, and indefatigable in his labours; and, in various Circuits, he had the happiness of seeing the work of God prosper in his hand. His talents in preaching were plain and edifying. Infirmities, brought on by the labours of the itinerant life, and an accident which he suffered, obliged him to retire as a Supernumerary in the year 1823. He settled in Sheffield, his native town, where he resided, much respected and beloved, to the period of his death. This event, which took place August 22d, 1838, found him in the enjoyment of the peace and triumphs of that Gospel which he had so long professed and preached. He was thirty-one years in the ministry.

(2.) ROBERT RAMM; who was converted to God at the age of thirteen years, and called to the work of the ministry in the year 1813. He was a man of genuine piety, a zealous and useful Preacher, and an affectionate friend. He had fruit of his ministry in every station which he occupied. He suffered greatly from nervous debility, and often discovered a painful degree of timidity and diffidence; but he was amiable and kindly in his disposition, and was much beloved by our people. His end was triumphant. He frequently said, during his last affliction, "All is right, and appointed of God." After a severe struggle with the enemy of his soul, he sweetly exclaimed, "Blessed Jesus! blessed Jesus! Angels! angels!" and immediately passed to his heavenly rest. He died at Howden, of typhus fever, September 12th, 1838, in the forty-ninth year of his age, and the twenty-sixth of his ministry.

(3.) THOMAS LANCASTER BAKEWELL. He was converted to God in early life; and, giving evidence of sincere piety and competent gifts, was called into our ministry in the year 1837. He was a young man of great promise; unassuming in his manners; very diligent; faithful in the performance of his public ministrations and pastoral duties; and greatly endeared to the people among whom he laboured. He bade fair to profit above many of his equals. But it pleased Him who cannot err to cut short his days by typhus fever. When his mind was collected, his conversation, his prayers, his expressions of devout submission to the will of his heavenly Father, his earnest and faithful, yet affectionate, exhortations to all who visited him, led every beholder to offer the prayer, "May my last end be like his!" He died September 18th, 1838, in the twenty-second year of his age.

(4.) EDWARD OAKES, a native of Macclesfield. He was early placed for education under the care of the Rev. David Simpson, M.A., by whose pious instructions his mind was deeply impressed. When about fourteen years of age, he was more powerfully convinced of sin, under a sermon by the Rev. Joseph Benson, sought and obtained a sense of acceptance with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, and became a member of the Methodist society. He began to exhort and preach, in his eighteenth year, under the direction of the Rev. Alexander Mather. In the year 1814 he was received into our itinerant work. For a considerable time before his death, he was much afflicted with an asthmatic affection, but continued to preach until his last seizure, when his sufferings became very severe. Supported, however, by the promises of the Gospel, he possessed his soul in patience, and died in peace, September 26th, 1838, aged sixty-eight years.

(5.) HUMPHREY JONES, 1st. When the Welsh Wesleyan Preachers first visited Merionethshire, which was in the year 1805, he attended their ministry. He was soon convinced of sin, and converted to God. In a very short time he began to call sinners to repentance; and in the year 1809 was received on trial into the regular work of the ministry. For twenty-nine years he prosecuted his labours with great faithfulness and zeal. His piety was deep, his conduct uniformly upright, and his talents respectable. He was sincerely attached to the doctrine and discipline of our body, and was scrupulously exact in the discharge of his ministerial duties. At the last Conference he was compelled, by want of health and vigour, to retire as a Supernumerary; and on the 2d of October, 1838, he finished his earthly course, in the fifty-sixth year of his age. He died, as he had lived, in the heart-felt possession of true religion, which he had enjoyed as his comfort in life, and which he felt to be his support in death.

(6.) WILLIAM ARNETT; who was born at Hasley, near York, in the year 1785. He was converted to God, and joined the Methodist society, in the year 1805; and in 1811 was called into our itinerant work. He continued to labour with zeal and earnestness for twenty-seven years, when he became a Supernumerary. He was a man of deep and ardent piety, of indefatigable diligence, and inflexible integrity. His preaching was plain, practical, and useful; his views of our doctrines clear; and his attachment to our discipline strong and decided. He was beloved by his brethren, and respected by the people among whom he laboured. Although his health had for some time been gradually declining, his death was sudden, but most peaceful and triumphant. He died at Halsha-Moor, near Bolton, December 13th, 1838, in the fifty-third year of his age.

(7.) THOMAS TWIDDY. His piety was deep and uniform; and he was remarkable for his integrity, simplicity, and humility. As a Christian Minister, he was faithful, affectionate, and useful. His attachment to our doctrines and discipline was strong and consistent; and he was eminently a man of peace. For some years he endured much bodily weakness; and at times it was not without great difficulty that he could perform all his ministerial duties: yet he most carefully avoided neglecting any congregation. He bore his last affliction, which was exceedingly painful, with quiet resignation, and died in great peace, December 17th, 1838, in the sixty-first year of his age, and the thirty-third of his ministry.

(8.) JAMES FUSSELL. He was brought to a saving knowledge of the truth, when about twenty years of age, under the ministry of the late Rev. Walter Griffith. In the year 1806 he entered upon the labours of our ministry, from which in 1822 he was compelled by affliction to desist. He was a man of deep piety, and serious in all his deportment. He had respectable ministerial gifts, and was highly acceptable and useful. He was a kind friend and judicious counsellor. His last affliction was long and severe; but he bore it with cheerful resignation, until, on the 18th of January, 1839, he finished his course in the triumph of faith, aged fifty-six years.

(9.) JOHN MERCER; who was born in Farndale, in the Pickering Circuit, December 17th, 1770. From an early period of life he had the fear of God before his eyes, by which he was restrained from the commission of gross sin, and led frequently to think of death, and a judgment to come. In the year 1794 he became a member of the Methodist society, and shortly afterwards received the knowledge of salvation by the remission of sins. Having been usefully employed for some time as a Local Preacher, he was, in the year 1800, called into our itinerant work. As a Christian, he was distinguished by unimpeachable integrity, steady self-denial, uniform cheerfulness, and deep humility. As a Preacher, he was clear, solid, and useful. He was very exemplary in his attention to pastoral duties, particularly in visiting from house to house, by which means he endeared himself to those who might not otherwise have been attracted by his more public ministrations, and kept alive the flame of piety among the people committed to his care. In consequence of a paralytic attack, he was so far enfeebled that, in the year 1833, he was under the necessity of becoming a Supernumerary; but he did not lose his love for souls, or his zeal for the glory of God. During a protracted affliction he was graciously supported. A few days before his death he said, "For forty-eight years I have never lost a sense of my acceptance with God. There is not a single cloud in the prospect. I have the fulness of peace and consolation." He died calmly triumphant, at Birstal, January 26th, 1839, aged sixty-eight years.

(10.) JOHN WRIGHT; who was called into the work of our ministry in the year 1805. He possessed great simplicity of manners, and endeavoured to be useful in the church of God. During the past year, while stationed in the Bradwell Circuit, he was seized with apoplexy; and, though he recovered sufficiently to testify his confidence in God, he was soon, by a second attack, released from the sufferings of mortality. He died February 26th, 1839.

(11.) JONATHAN BARKER. He was born in Manchester, where, by the mercy of God, he was awakened to a sense of his sin and danger, joined the Methodist society, and became a partaker of the saving grace of God. Having acted for some time as a Local Preacher, he was received on trial into our regular ministry in the year 1793; and from that time until he was compelled, by reason of growing infirmities, to retire as a Supernumerary, he was a zealous, and in many Circuits a successful, Minister of Jesus Christ. He was a man of great simplicity and activity. His zeal for the salvation of souls rendered him very generally acceptable. In the year 1832 he withdrew from the full work of the ministry; but he still laboured according to his ability, in pulpit and pastoral services, until within a few weeks of his death, when his health entirely failed. Though labouring under considerable bodily oppression and weakness, he expressed himself with feeling and fervency concerning his faith in God, and hope of life eternal. His whole confidence was placed in what Christ had done and suffered for him, and not in any degree on what he had done in the service of God. He died in peace, committing his spirit into the hands of his Saviour, March 16th, 1839, aged seventy-six years.

(12.) JOSEPH BURGESS, SEN. He was a native of Ireland, and spent the earlier years of his life in the army, where he was made a Quarter-Master, and Paymaster to the regiment. Amidst the snares and temptations of the military profession, he was truly converted to God, and became a member of the Methodist society. Having for some years adorned the doctrine of God his Saviour by a circumspect deportment, he at length began to preach that doctrine to others. Becoming acquainted with the Rev. John Wesley, and feeling a desire to be more extensively employed in promoting the spiritual welfare of his fellow-creatures, he corresponded on the subject with that venerable man, by whom he was admitted as an Itinerant Preacher at the Conference of 1790. From that time he devoted himself with unremitting and exemplary diligence to pulpit and pastoral duties. His preaching was plain, pointed, and impressive, fraught with evangelical truth, applied with practical fidelity, and accompanied with much divine power and unction. By his labours many sinners were awakened and converted, and many believers edified and comforted. He was conscientiously attentive both to the financial and the spiritual concerns of the various Circuits in which he was stationed; nor did he ever allow any consideration of personal ease, comfort, or advantage, to interfere with the discharge of his duty. His disposition was frank and open, generous and affectionate. He was a bright example of all that is excellent and amiable in the religion of Jesus Christ; and, during the latter years of his life, was generally regarded with a high degree of veneration, as a saint of a superior order, as one of the patriarchal relics of a former generation, and as a fine specimen of that simplicity and humility, that deep and unaffected piety, that diligence and zeal, that disinterestedness and benevolence, which so signally marked the character of the early Methodist Preachers. He had attained a richness and maturity of Christian experience, and lived in a blessed state of preparation for his final change. A few days before his death, when retiring to bed, he said with great solemnity, "I bless my God, I could lie down to die now, if it were his will, with as much composure as I can lie down to sleep." As far as his strength would allow, he continued his labours to the close of his earthly career. He preached, and administered the Lord's supper, a fortnight before his death; and during the last week of his life was engaged in meeting classes, visiting the sick, and performing other labours of love. He had an apoplectic seizure on Saturday evening, March 23d, 1839, and about noon on the next day fell asleep in Jesus, without a struggle or a groan. His hoary head was eminently a crown of glory, and his memory is blessed. He died at Plymouth, in the eighty-second year of his age, and the forty-ninth of his ministry.

(13.) WILLIAM POLLARD. He was a native of Guisborough in Yorkshire, and was early in life converted to God. Shortly afterwards he felt a deep conviction that it was his duty to preach the Gospel; and he was at length introduced into the work of the ministry, in which he greatly delighted, and in which his labours were honoured with considerable success. He was sound in the faith; and from the tone of his Christian experience, together with the humble and unfeigned piety of his general character, it was manifest that he habitually walked with God. He was a faithful dispenser of "the word of life," and an exemplary Superintendent, enforcing the discipline of the Connexion wisely, temperately, and successfully, and always caring for the flock, by whom he was gratefully esteemed and beloved. He possessed a strong memory, and a cultivated mind, richly stored with the treasures of evangelical truth. A short time before his death he joyfully acknowledged the goodness of God, and expressed his entire reliance on the atonement of Christ. He continued in the same state of calm and happy confidence, until he was released from mortality. He died at Newport-Pagnell, April 3d, 1839, in the forty-fifth year of his age, and the twenty-third of his ministry.

(14.) PHILIP HARDCASTLE, SEN. He was converted from the error of his ways, in the twentieth year of his age, under a sermon preached by the late Mr. Richard Burdsall. At the recommendation of Mr. Murlin, he was called into our itinerant work by the Rev. John Wesley, in the year 1781. He possessed strong mental and physical powers, and was very laborious in his ministerial office. His personal piety was evinced by a long life of strict uprightness; his preaching was plain, pointed, and forcible; and his attachments were warm and sincere. In the year 1826 he retired as a Supernumerary, in consequence of the failure of his health; and for the remaining thirteen years of his life was severely afflicted. But he was preserved in a state of perfect resignation to the will of God, of tranquil confidence, and heavenly joy. He died at Stokesley, April 17th, 1839, aged eighty-three years.

(15.) JOHN OGILVIE; who entered upon our itinerant work in the year 1782, and continued in it until the year 1821, when he became a Supernumerary. For several years he was afflicted with great bodily infirmity, and was incapable of public service. He lived retired among his children, and had but little intercourse with his brethren. He died of apoplexy, at Dulow, Cornwall, April 25th, 1839. For some time previous to his death, his mind was eminently tranquil.

(16.) JOHN FAIRBOURN; who was born at Leppington, in the county of York, in the year 1781. Early in life he was a subject of religious impressions; and when eighteen years of age, was deeply convinced of his guilt and depravity, and of the necessity of a divine change. He earnestly sought, and through faith obtained, a sense of God's pardoning love. Soon after his conversion he was constrained by the love of Christ to call sinners to repentance. In 1802 he commenced his itinerant labours, in which he continued without interruption for thirty-seven years. As a Preacher, he was plain and experimental. During his last affliction, he held fast his confidence in God; and died in peace, May 2d, 1839.

(17.) BENJAMIN BARRETT; who was born at Eccles-hill, near Bradford, Yorkshire, in the year 1779. He was awakened to a sense of his sin and danger at the age of about fourteen years, and soon afterwards received "the knowledge of salvation by the remission of sins." He joined the society, and at the age of nineteen was admitted as a Local Preacher. He was proposed and accepted as a candidate for the itinerant work in the year 1807, and continued to labour in it for nearly thirty-two years. He was of an unassuming and affectionate disposition, and was eminently a man of peace. In his ministerial character, he was distinguished by piety, simplicity, and faithfulness, which secured to him the confidence of the people among whom he laboured. His health was for many months in a declining state, but he prosecuted his wonted labours until within a short time of his decease. During his last illness, he said to a friend, "I have believed on my Saviour here, and I shall reign with him hereafter." He died, in the sixtieth year of his age, on Sunday, May 24th, 1839, much beloved and sincerely lamented by the societies among whom he was stationed.

(18.) SAMUEL THOMPSON; who was born in the county of Down, Ireland, in the year 1797. He was convinced of sin at the age of ten years, and at fifteen was truly converted to God. He entered upon the itinerant work in the year 1823, and continued to labour in it without interruption for sixteen years. He was a man of unaffected piety, and was exemplary for his simplicity, integrity, and uniform devotedness to God. His talents as a Preacher were respectable. He zealously and faithfully published a present salvation, as attainable through faith in our Lord Jesus Christ; and he was a messenger of mercy to many. His death was triumphant. A short time before his departure, he looked up, and said, "I enjoy that peace which passeth all understanding;" words which he often repeated. He was mercifully preserved from the assaults of Satan. On being asked by his afflicted wife, "What shall I say to your friends? Have you any commands to give them?" he replied, "Tell them to dwell together in love ; for love is the bond which unites the Christian church." He died June 3d, 1839, in the forty-second year of his age, deeply and sincerely regretted.

(19.) JOHN GAULTER, a native of Chester. Having been converted to God, amidst providential visitations of an alarming character which fell upon some of his gay companions, he joined the Methodist society, and was called into the work of the ministry, by the Rev. John Wesley, in the year 1785. He possessed mental powers of a superior order. His understanding was vigorous ; his memory was most retentive, and almost equally so of events, places, circumstances, and words ; his imagination was lively, investing his thoughts with appropriate and happy illustrations ; and he was, undoubtedly, endued with the unacquirable faculty of genius. His character, generally, presented a fine union of intellectual power, devotional feeling, affectionate sensibility, and practical diligence. His preaching was discursive and original, able and impressive. He had an unfeigned love for the work in which he was engaged ; his whole train of thoughts was imbued with the doctrines of the Gospel, which were brought forth in his public ministrations, apparently without effort or labour, in their native energy and grace ; he had a deep sense in his own soul of the efficacy of the truth ; and, above all, an ardent desire for his Redeemer's glory. He had, in an eminent degree, the holy passion for saving souls ; and never failed, by the blessing of God, to extend the work of religion in the Circuits where he laboured. The talents which he had received from the "Father of lights," he neither hid, nor expended upon his own glory, but employed them as holy and consecrated things for the good of man. He was exemplary in the work of visiting from house to house ; he freely entered every dwelling where he might be permitted to speak for his Master, and was especially attentive to the sick and dying. He was a man of peace, abhorring all wrath, and bitterness, and strife. He seemed unsusceptible of enmity ; yet to all the gentleness and kindness of his temper he added perfect inflexibility of moral principle. He was upright in conduct, undefiled in conversation, and separated, in all his enjoyments, from the world that lieth in wickedness. He retained to the close of life all the freshness of his early feelings and sympathies; and enjoyed, in a large measure, that happiness which flows from contentment with our lot, or that something more than contentment, which consists in the harmony of our circumstances and dispositions. His joy was to spend and be spent in the service of his divine Redeemer; and his motto was, "Holding forth the word of life; that I may rejoice in the day of Christ, that I have not run in vain, neither laboured in vain." In the year 1835 he was laid aside from public work by a stroke of paralysis, but retained the faculties of his mind, and exemplified his devotional spirit by a regular and frequent attendance on the ordinances of religion to the end of his life. His death was peaceful and happy; and, with declarations of his personal reliance on Christ, and exhortations to his beloved family to "behold the Lamb of God," his soul escaped to the mansions of eternal light. He died in London, June 19th, 1839, aged seventy-four years.

2. In Ireland, seven, viz.,—

(1.) HENRY LUCY. He was born at Doogery, in the Brookborough Circuit; and lived according to the course of this world until about the twentieth year of his age, when he was deeply convinced of sin under the Methodist ministry, and truly converted to God. After his conversion, his mind was deeply impressed with the awful condition of sinners, and he soon began to warn them to flee from the wrath to come. "The hand of the Lord was with him," and sinners were turned from the error of their ways. In the year 1827 he was appointed to the Ballymena Mission; and for six years endured the toils and privations, and rejoiced in the success, of the Irish Missions. His efforts, when in a regular Circuit, were equally zealous; for he was "instant in season, and out of season," in the discharge of his duties; and the disease which terminated his valuable life was induced by his great exertions to make known salvation in the name of the Lord Jesus. In 1837 he was obliged to retire from the regular work ; but, although forbidden to speak, his tongue could not be silent. To talk of his Redeemer, the conversion of souls, and the prosperity of religion, was indeed his "loved employ." Punctuality, diligence, ardent zeal, and success in the conversion of sinners, marked his short ministerial course. In his last illness, he was favoured with very gracious visitations from on high. He died, in the full triumph of faith, October 22d, 1838, in the thirty-eighth year of his age.

(2.) JOHN REMMINGTON. He was a native of the neighbourhood of Cloughjordan. In the year 1790 he earnestly sought and obtained the divine favour, and gave uniform evidence that his conversion was genuine. He entered upon the ministry in the year 1802 ; and, with little interruption, continued to travel until the year 1834, when he became a Supernumerary. For several years he laboured faithfully and successfully as a Foreign Missionary. He was evidently declining in strength for some time before his death, although he continued to preach occasionally in the town where he resided. He was a man of unquestionable piety, uprightness, and simplicity, and enjoyed uninterrupted communion with God. In his last illness he suffered much, but was patient, and resigned to the divine will. A little before his death, he said to his family, "O be a family of prayer ! Come, come, I want you all in heaven." His sorrowing wife replied, "You will soon have the victory : " he answered, "I have the victory." She inquired, "Is the Saviour precious ?" "Yes," said he, "very, very, very precious." His last words were, "Farewell.—All is well." He died November 11th, 1838, aged sixty-six years.

(3.) ALEXANDER STURGEON. He was a native of the county of Armagh. In his youth he was sober and regular in his conduct, but an entire stranger to experimental religion, until the twenty-third year of his age, when he was providentially led to hear the late Rev. James M'Donald preach a sermon on the occasion of the death of our venerable Founder; and, although his prejudice against Methodism was very strong, his mind was so impressed with the importance of eternal things, that he, from that time, attended on the ministry of the Wesleyan Methodists. He was soon convinced that he was a sinner; sought and found "redemption in the blood of Christ, even the forgiveness of sins;" and, as there is good reason to believe, never lost the witness of his adoption. Shortly after his conversion, the love of Christ constrained him to begin to call sinners to repentance, first in his native place, and then in more distant parts. His labours were so acceptable, and his talents so promising, that, in the year 1795, after due examination, he was received on trial by the Conference, appointed to a Circuit, and continued to travel and labour, with regularity, faithfulness, and success, until the year 1832, when, worn down by disease and weakness, he was compelled to retire from the regular work; but he continued to preach, as long as the state of his health permitted. He was a man of great prudence, truly pious, and a good preacher; his manner in the pulpit was pleasing, solemn, and impressive. He was well received in all the Circuits in which he travelled, and was made useful in the church of God. In his youth he was a diligent and obedient Helper; and in his maturer years, a prudent and affectionate Superintendent,—being an example to his younger brethren, in the meekness of his spirit, and the regularity and punctuality of all his movements in his Circuit. After he became a Supernumerary, his afflictions were often severe, and his weakness great; but in his patience he possessed his soul; his God was with him when passing through the furnace; no murmuring word escaped his lips; and he died in great peace, January 11th, 1839, aged seventy-one years.

(4.) WILLIAM SMITH. He was born at Market-Lavington, Wiltshire, June 21st, 1758. From his youth he was accustomed to read the holy Scriptures, and was thereby frequently visited with religious convictions and desires. It was not, however, until his twenty-second year, while serving as a musician in His Majesty's 28th regiment, that he fully yielded his heart to God, and, through faith in Christ, became a happy subject of pardoning mercy and regenerating grace. From that period to the close of life, he acquitted himself as a good soldier of Jesus Christ, following peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord. Shortly after his conversion, impelled by love to his Saviour, and zeal for the salvation of souls, he began to preach righteousness, and call sinners to repentance. His services whilst a Local Preacher attracted vast crowds, and were powerfully awakening and impressive. In 1790, having obtained his discharge from the army, and being duly recommended to Mr. Wesley as a highly promising and suitable person for the Methodist itinerancy, he was approved, and appointed by him to the Londonderry Circuit; and, with exemplary diligence, fidelity, and remarkable success, he continued his labours through the principal Circuits in the Irish Connexion, until the Conference of 1821, when, through bodily infirmity, he was rendered unable any longer to perform the regular duties of a Circuit, and became a Supernumerary, and settled in Dublin; where, with his wonted diligence and zeal, he employed his remaining time and strength in the service of the church, visiting the sick, meeting classes, and preaching generally twice in the week, very much to the edification and profit of the society and congregations. Gratitude, uniform cheerfulness, candour, simplicity, punctuality to all his engagements, and a holy, spiritual conversation, were distinguishing traits in his character. He was a man of various reading; and was especially conversant with his Bible, which he read regularly through, once every year. He was able to collate the authorized version with the Greek text; and but few men acquired a more thorough knowledge of the facts, doctrines, privileges, duties, and blessings of that holy book than he did. His ministry was purely evangelical, and his discourses abounded with the words which the Holy Ghost teacheth, admirably interwoven with his own. He was, indeed, "a workman that needed not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth," bringing out of the sacred treasury things new and old, and giving to persons of every character a suitable portion in due season. To the careless sinner he was a Boanerges; and to the mourners in Zion, a son of consolation. In every Circuit where he travelled, he was honoured of God with seals to his ministry, who will be to him in the day of eternity a crown of rejoicing in Christ Jesus. During the last few years of his life, he was totally deprived of sight, and mostly confined to his house; yet his pious ardour, love of prayer, regard for the holy Scriptures, concern for the spread of the Gospel, and prosperity of our Zion, remained unabated. When unable to attend the public ordinances, the aged and beloved companion of his journey daily read for him the Church Liturgy, with the Psalms and Lessons for the day, and he audibly responded. Whole chapters and many of our hymns were, even at his advanced period of life, committed to memory, and habitually repeated by him during his sleepless hours in the night-watches; and they supplied the principal theme of his conversation in the day-time, interspersed with judicious and edifying remarks, all tending to exhibit his heavenly-mindedness, with his growth in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. As he approached the closing scene, every religious friend who visited him was particularly affected by his venerable patriarchal appearance, and profited by his wise and godly counsels. Thus he continued, evidently increasing in meetness for the society and inheritance of the saints in light, until, in his eighty-first year, full of the faith and hope of the Gospel, he finished his course with joy, articulating, in grateful accents, with his latest breath, "Glory!—glory!" In him were strikingly exemplified the concluding lines of Dr. Watts's beautiful Evening Hymn,—

"As he drew nearer the end of his race,
Like a fine setting sun, he look'd richer in grace,
And gave a sure hope at the end of his days
Of rising in brighter array."

He died January 16th, 1839.

(5.) JOHN HOWE. He was a native of the city of Cork ; and by his venerable parent, Mr. George Howe, was early dedicated to God, with reference to the Christian ministry. He grew up a hopeful youth, joined the Methodist society, and under a deep conviction of his guilt and danger as a sinner sought and found redemption through faith in the blood of Christ, and was made a joyful partaker of the Spirit of adoption. Having thus obtained mercy, constrained by love to Christ, and compassion for "those who are ignorant and out of the way," he began to warn sinners "to flee from the wrath to come," and to unite with others in the society, who were like-minded with himself, in meetings for public prayer and exhortation. In these hallowed exercises his profiting appeared to all, insomuch that he was soon admitted as a Local Preacher ; and such were the developement of his gifts and usefulness in that character, that after having passed the usual examinations of candidates for our ministry, he was recommended to the Conference, and appointed to a Circuit, in 1802. From that period he continued, without intermission, to labour with diligence, zeal, and fidelity, in the vineyard of his Lord, until within two days of his death. He was a man of strict integrity and unquestionable piety ; cordial in his attachment to our doctrines and discipline ; steady in friendship ; tender and affectionate in all the relations of life ; and, on the whole, a laborious, useful Minister of the Gospel of the grace of God, and respected and beloved in the various Circuits where he travelled. Some months before his decease, he complained of a distressing affection in his chest ; yet his love to our cause induced him, at considerable inconvenience, to attend our Centenary Meeting in Dublin, which was held on Wednesday, February 27th. On the Thursday following he returned to Limerick, where he arrived on Friday evening ; and although unwell, preached twice on Sunday, March the 4th. On Monday and Tuesday he met his classes ; but, feeling his illness increase, he retired to bed, where he remained on Wednesday, attending to the prescriptions of his medical adviser. On Wednesday evening he felt better, sat up, and conversed cheerfully with his family and friends, and expressed his resignation to the will of God, with a firm hope in his mercy. At his usual hour of rest, he retired to bed, from which he rose no more. During the night, without a struggle or a groan, and unperceived by all, even by his son, who lay in the same room, his deathless spirit took its happy flight to the mansions of the blessed. He died March 7th, 1839, in the fifty-ninth year of his age. "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints."

(6.) ANDREW HAMILTON, SEN. He was born at Lisleen, in the county of Tyrone, in the neighbourhood of Drum-clamp, a place which, for many years, was a school of the Prophets, and from which a considerable number of Preachers were called into the ministry. As to the exact time and circumstances of his conversion, there is no authentic record; but that he did early in life receive the remission of sins, and the witness of the Spirit, there was unquestionable evidence during his long and faithful services in the church of Christ. In 1788 he was called into our ministry; and, after travelling for a short period, became a Supernumerary: but having had one year's rest, he resumed his public work, and laboured in his Lord's vineyard with considerable acceptance. When stationed in the Castlebar Circuit, he received an injury in one of his legs; and when in the Milltown Circuit, a foundation was laid, by a fall from his horse, for disease of the most distressing kind. For the last twelve years, he was confined to his residence, and unable to attend on the ordinances of God's house; but his mind was kept in perfect peace, being fully resigned to the divine will. He was a man of sound judgment, of unblemished character, of a meek and quiet spirit, serious in his deportment, and steady in his friendship. He was an agreeable colleague, and an acceptable and useful preacher. He loved our doctrine and discipline, and was diligent and faithful in the discharge of his various duties as a Christian Minister. A few days before his death, he said to one of his brethren, "Tell the Preachers, I am in the furnace, but it is not too hot. I am willing to suffer for a short or long time, much or little; I have no will but the will of God." It being said, "Your stay here will not be long;" he replied, "I know it,

'Nor would I wish the hours more slow
That keep me from my God.'

He died April 29th, 1839, aged seventy-four years.

(7.) GIDEON OUSELEY. He died, as he had lived, an eminent witness of the salvation of the Gospel. He was the most distinguished, efficient, and successful Irish Missionary ever employed by our religious community. He laboured with a devotion and earnestness worthy of the first and purest ages of the Christian church; and to an extent never, perhaps, surpassed, and seldom equalled. He was born in Dunmore, in the county of Galway, in the year 1762. From his earliest recollection, he had deep and serious impressions on his mind relative to God and eternity, and looked forward to a never-ending existence with intense anxiety: but not having any spiritual instruction or help, his reasonings well-nigh resulted in the horrors of scepticism and despair. About 1789 he first heard the Gospel from the Methodist Preachers; and early in May, 1791, was convinced of his guilty and lost condition, and cried out in the utmost dismay, "I shall be ruined most certainly!" "I got," he said, "such a sight of hell, and of going into it, never, never, never to be released, through all eternity, that I cried from my heart, 'O Lord, I will submit!'" His deeply-anxious mind could find no rest until he obtained redemption through the blood of Jesus, even the forgiveness of sins. He soon received a clear testimony of the divine favour, through faith in the atonement, and was made indescribably happy. On every subject he took strong and decided views; and when he had become influenced by divine grace, he resolved to be a Christian in earnest, and to go on to higher attainments in the life of God. He longed to love the Lord his God with all his heart, and soul, and mind, and strength; and after a short but severe struggle, he proved that "the blood of Jesus Christ cleanseth from all sin," and "rejoiced with joy unspeakable and full of glory." His bosom glowed with tender pity for his benighted and perishing countrymen; and, although he entered upon the work with considerable pain and reluctance, "having only," to use his own words, "these two things,—the knowledge of the disease, and the knowledge of the remedy," he went forth through his native county, and the neighbouring counties, and at funerals, in fairs and markets, published salvation in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ. In 1799, the year after the Irish rebellion, he was called out by the Conference, as an Irish Missionary. For this great and important work he was pre-eminently fitted. His knowledge of the character and prejudices of the native population, and of the practical evils and enormities of the Popish delusion, his almost instinctive acuteness in detecting the insidious subtleties, and his unequalled power of argument in refuting the errors, of Popery, enabled him to grapple most successfully with the revolting, anti-Christian monster; while his thorough acquaintance with the Irish language gave facility to the attention and access to the sympathies of the Irish people. His various works on the Popish Controversy, particularly his book entitled "Old Christianity,"—a work of superior value,—evinced very great research, and gave him a rank as a man of no inconsiderable literary acquirements, while they exhibit marks of having been touched with a master hand. His sermons were marked by great originality and strength; and powerful convictions laid hold of the hearts of his congregations, while he reasoned and persuaded them out of the Scriptures. He generally went from his knees to the pulpit, or streets; and after strong cries and tears before the throne of grace, invited his perishing fellow-men to the feet of Jesus, for mercy and salvation. In him were exemplified the well-known words,—

"The love of Christ doth me constrain
To seek the wandering souls of men;
With cries, entreaties, tears, to save,
To snatch them from the gaping grave."

For forty years he exercised his public ministry, through evil report and good report, in honour and in dishonour, through every part of the kingdom, with quenchless ardour, invincible constancy, pure patriotism, and unwearied zeal,—frequently preaching three times, and occasionally four or five times a day, in English and Irish. His addresses were accompanied with a power, pathos, and unction of the Holy One, which deeply affected, and sometimes overwhelmed, the vast assemblies which attended his ministry. Hundreds, if not thousands, of souls were the fruit of that ministry, which no doubt will be the crown of his rejoicing in the day of Christ. He travelled and preached until within a few days of his lamented death. On the 11th of April he reached Dublin, on the 20th became confined to bed; and although his illness was accompanied with intense and uninterrupted pain, yet he never lost an opportunity of pressing upon his medical attendants, and others who visited him, the consideration of eternal things. On the 14th of May this great and devoted servant of Jesus Christ fell asleep, in the full triumph of faith and hope, in the seventy-eighth year of his age. “Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord, from henceforth: yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours, and their works do follow them.”

3. In our Foreign Missions, six have died, viz.,—

(1.) THOMAS HENRY BEWLEY; who died of yellow fever, at Stewart’s-Town, Jamaica, July 14th, 1838. At the early age of ten years he saw and felt the importance of true religion; and, influenced by the example and instruction of a kind and pious father, frequently applied to the throne of grace for the pardoning mercy of his Redeemer. At the age of sixteen he obtained a clear and satisfactory evidence of his acceptance with God, the remembrance of which was a source of great satisfaction to his mind in his last moments. In 1823 he gave himself up to the work of the ministry, and was appointed to the Whitehaven Circuit, where he laboured with great acceptance and success, as well as afterwards in Ireland, Edinburgh, and Manchester; but in 1829, owing to severe mental depression, bodily affliction, and other causes, he was compelled to retire from the work.

However, in the course of a few years, his health being re-established, and his mind continuing to be fully alive to the great work of saving the souls of perishing sinners, he again offered himself for the work of the ministry, and was by the Conference most cordially received, and immediately appointed to the General Superintendence of the Mission Schools in Jamaica. He arrived in that colony in the beginning of the year 1837, and was spared by divine Providence to introduce a system of education peculiarly well adapted to meet the wants of the rising generation, and to commence the establishment of a number of schools calculated to prove nurseries of piety and useful knowledge to thousands of the children of the lately emancipated population. But, like many other blessed men of God, who have died in that field of Missionary labour, he fell a speedy though ready sacrifice to the inhospitable climate, in the very prime of active usefulness; and was thus called by a mysterious, yet unerring Providence, to render up his account, and enter into the presence of his Lord. His last moments were particularly solemn and affecting, and will never be forgotten by those who witnessed them. His faith in the great atonement, though much tried, was firm and unwavering; and although the prospect of leaving a widow and five children in a foreign land, for a while pressed upon his spirit, yet he became perfectly resigned to the divine will; and though at the time he was a subject of much bodily suffering, yet in clear and distinct language he was enabled to exclaim, "I now give up every thing earthly. My only care was about my wife and children; but I now give all up: they are in good hands. I am ready to go." On being asked if Jesus was precious, he replied, "O yes! O yes! It is all right! I have delightful views of the heavenly world. All is well." His voice soon failed, and he rapidly, but peacefully and victoriously, sunk into the arms of death, and his happy spirit escaped to the regions of endless bliss, in the thirty-eighth year of his age.

(2.) THOMAS WALL; who, at the Conference of 1837, was appointed to St. Mary's, Western Africa, and arrived there on the 26th of November in the same year. He commenced his labours in the true spirit of a Christian Missionary: he was studious, diligent, affectionate, and faithful in his pastoral and other ministerial duties, and was a very acceptable and useful preacher. His Missionary career was short; for though his health was generally very good, affording ground for hope that he would long be spared to cultivate the moral wilderness, and to bring sinners to God, he was arrested by a peculiar paroxysm of fever, and, after three short days of illness, exchanged mortality for life, in the twenty-ninth year of his age. His lamented death took place on the 24th of August, 1838, precisely twelve months after that of Mr. Wilkinson, who preceded him on that station. Some of his last words were addressed to the Local Preachers and Assistants who were around his bed, in exhorting them to "do all they could to save sinners."

(3.) THOMAS EDWARDS, JUN.; who departed this life on the 23d of November, 1838. He was a native of Wrexham; and, after having laboured a short time in our itinerant work at home, he sailed for the West Indies at the latter end of 1836. After his arrival at St. Christopher's, he laboured in that island with acceptance about fourteen months, and then proceeded to Nevis, his last station; where, after labouring about nine months, he was taken suddenly ill with fever, and at the end of six days of suffering, he resigned his soul into the hands of his gracious Redeemer, with a hope full of immortality. His piety was deep and sincere; his ministerial talents were very acceptable among all classes; he was diligent in every department of his work, and his labours were crowned with success. We lament his sudden and unexpected removal at the age of twenty-eight years, and in the fifth year of his ministry; but bow with submission to the will of God, from a pleasing conviction that our loss is his eternal gain.

(4.) EDWARD J. PEARD. He was a man of fervent piety, and of useful ministerial talents. It was expected that he would have proved a successful labourer in Western Africa, for which quarter of the world he had embarked, when in the inscrutable providence of God he suffered shipwreck and loss of life, with Mrs. Peard, and all on board the vessel, off Weymouth, on the 28th of November, 1838, in the twenty-fourth year of his age.

(5.) ROBERT H. CRANE ; who was a native of Nova-Scotia, and for some years laboured as a Missionary in various Circuits of the British provinces. In the year 1832 he was appointed to the West Indies, and preached in St. Vincent's for about three years. He was then removed to Tobago ; and after fulfilling his time there, he was again stationed in St. Vincent's. Infirmity had induced him to request a return to his native land, and this had been granted ; but just as he was preparing to take leave of his brethren at their approaching District-Meeting, he was called to sicken and to die. He was seized with severe fever on Wednesday, the 30th of January, 1839 ; and continued to get worse until the 3d of February, when he fell asleep in Jesus. This was the first Sabbath of the District-Meeting, and most of the Preachers were present. His funeral took place the next day, and the whole population appeared deeply affected. His remains were attended to the grave by a very large concourse of spectators. Brother Crane was brought to God in early life, under the preaching of a Missionary sent out from home, and he considered himself as the fruit of Missionary labour. He was of a mild and affectionate temper, a lover of Methodism, and was beloved for his kindness by the brethren with whom he laboured.

(6.) HENRY FLEET ; who died at Sierra-Leone, on the 30th of May, 1839. He was a deeply pious and devoted man, and a zealous Minister of Jesus Christ. He was willing to make any sacrifice, and to venture into any climate, that he might be instrumental in bringing the souls of men to a saving acquaintance with the truth of God. The vessel in which he sailed to Sierra-Leone met with much tempestuous weather ; the health of Mrs. Fleet failed under the sufferings of the voyage, and she died when within fifty miles of their destined port. Mr. Fleet bowed with humility to this afflictive dispensation; and entered on his work at Sierra-Leone with a zeal more ardent, from the many sorrows of which he was the subject. His last illness was brief, but accompanied with much consolation; his confidence never failed in the prospect of dissolution; and with a full and blessed hope of eternal happiness, he entered into rest, in the twenty-second year of his age.

Q. V. Are there any OBJECTIONS to any of our Preachers?

A. They were examined one by one.

Q. VI. What Preachers have DESISTED FROM TRAVELLING?

A. 1. John Armitage and Samuel Dawson.

2. Joseph A. Marsden has retired for want of health.

Q. VII. How are our Preachers STATIONED for the ensuing year?

A. As follows; viz.,—

[N.B. Each of the Places mentioned in these Stations, and numbered consecutively from 1 to 404, is the head of a Circuit.

The Preacher or Preachers stationed in, or appointed to, the several Circuits undermentioned, is and are appointed by the Conference to preach, and to perform all acts of religious worship and Methodist discipline, in each and every of the Wesleyan-Methodist chapels already erected, or to be erected, within each Circuit respectively, within the space of twelve calendar months, at such time or times, and in such manner, as to him or them shall seem proper; subject nevertheless to the direction of the Superintendent Preachers.]

 W. G. SCARTH, Esq., Leeds ;
 ALEXANDER SUTER, Esq., Halifax ;
 JAMES WOOD, Esq., Manchester ;
 JAMES WOOD, Esq., Bristol.

DR. SANDWITH, JAMES HUNTER, THOMAS F. RANCE, W. GRIFFITH, and JOHN M. CAMPLIN, ESQRS., of London, are requested to act as a Medical Sub-Committee for the Wesleyan Missions.

The following Gentlemen are appointed a Sub-Committee to meet prior to the next Conference, to report on the affairs of the Polynesian Missionary Ship:—John Irving, Esq., of Bristol; Thomas Sands, Esq., and Michael Ashton, Esq., of Liverpool; Christopher Wawn, Esq., of South-Shields; Robert Campion, Esq., of Whitby; and Messrs. Lidgett, Ward, Chadwick, and Weller, of London; with the General Treasurers and General Secretaries of the Society, and the Rev. Messrs. Lawry, Roberts, and Horton;—with power to add to their number.

3. The cordial thanks of the Conference are hereby presented to THOMAS FARMER, Esq., and the REV. JOHN SCOTT, for their important services as General Treasurers of the Wesleyan Missionary Society, during the last year; and they are respectfully requested to accept that office for the year ensuing.

4. The cordial thanks of the Conference are hereby presented to the REV. DR. BUNTING, and to the REV. MESSRS. BEECHAM, ALDER, and HOOLE, the General Secretaries, for their very acceptable and useful services to our Missions during the past year.

5. At the several Financial District-Meetings, which shall be held in September, arrangements shall be made for holding Missionary Meetings throughout the respective Districts, especially those in the Circuit-Towns, during the ensuing year; so that such Meetings may be held at the least possible expense: and the District Treasurers and Secretaries shall be earnestly invited to attend the said District-Meetings, when such arrangements are under consideration. The plan for each District, thus provisionally arranged, shall be immediately transmitted by the Chairman to the several Preachers who form the Deputation for that District, as appointed in the List of Deputations hereafter subjoined. The said Preachers are required to correspond with the Chairman on the subject forthwith; in order that such final arrangements may be adopted, by mutual consent, as to the exact time of holding the Missionary Meetings for the Circuits of each District, as will prevent in future the great inconvenience which has resulted from the absence, on any Missionary Deputation, of more than one Preacher from the same Circuit at the same time. It is requested that a copy of each arrangement thus formed be forwarded to the General Secretaries in London. It is also recommended, that one of the usual Quarterly Meetings of each District Auxiliary Committee be summoned during the sitting of the Annual District-Meeting, for the purpose of investigating the expenses incurred at Anniversaries, &c.

6. The Chairmen of Districts are requested, immediately after the District-Meetings in May, to send to the General Secretaries of the Missions a copy of that part of their District-Minutes containing the names, qualifications, &c., of those candidates who may offer themselves for Mission work.

7. The following Preachers and other Friends are particularly invited to attend the Special Meeting of the Missionary Committee, which will be held in Newcastle, at nine o'clock in the forenoon of Tuesday, July 29th, 1840, according to the Seventeenth Article of the "Laws and Regulations of the Wesleyan Missionary Society;" viz., the Rev. Messrs. John Anderson, Alexander Bell, William M. Bunting, Joseph Fowler, Thomas Harris, Peter M'Owan, Robert Pilter, Barnard Slater, Richard Waddy;—with Thomas C. Gibson, Esq., Robert Swan Stanley, Esq., Mr. Ralph Wilson, and Mr. David Flintoff, of Newcastle; Mr. John Reay, of Carville; Mr. George W. Longridge, and Mr. James Hartley, of Sunderland; Christopher Wawn, Esq., of South-Shields; Mr. Solomon Mease, of North-Shields; Mr. John Vickers, of Gateshead; T. P. Bunting, Esq., of Manchester; and C. Barrett, Esq., of Darlington.—N. B. This Meeting is open to the Treasurers and Secretaries of the different Auxiliary and Branch Societies in the vicinity, and to such other leading country friends of the Methodist Missions as can conveniently attend; and their presence is hereby respectfully requested.

SCHOOLS.

Q. XII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference respecting the affairs of our SCHOOLS?

A. 1. JOHN IRVING, ESQ., of Bristol, and the REV. PHILIP C. TURNER, are re-appointed the General Treasurers, and the REV. WILLIAM BARTON is appointed the General Secretary, for the ensuing year.

2. The following persons are appointed as the General Committee for the ensuing year:—The President and Secretary of the Conference, the General Treasurers and the Secretary of the School-Fund, the Rev. Messrs. Anderson, Dr. Bunting, James Dixon, J. Entwisle, sen., Joseph Fowler, E. Grindrod, J. Hannah, sen., T. Jackson, Samuel Jackson, R. R. Keeling, R. Reece, J. Rigg, J. Scott, B. Slater, R. Treffry, and D. Walton; with Messrs. T. Crook, and Sands, of Liverpool; John Marsden, and James Wood, of Manchester; Heald, of Stockport; T. C. Gibson, Ralph Wilson, W. Nesham, and D. Flintoff, of Newcastle, West; John Reay, of Newcastle, East; Vickers, of Gateshead; James Hartley, and G. W. Longridge, of Sunderland; S. Mease, of North-Shields; and C. Wawn, of South-Shields; and such members of the Local Committees as can conveniently attend on the Friday preceding the next Conference.

3. The following are the Local Committees for the ensuing year:—

KINGSWOOD SCHOOL.—The Rev. Jacob Stanley, sen., Chairman; Rev. Robert Smith, Local Treasurer; Rev. Henry Fish, Secretary; Rev. Messrs. A. E. Farrar, Josiah Hill, W. Clegg, J. Shoar, J. Lomas, John Brown, sen., John Evans, W. Peterson;—with Messrs. Capel, Exley, A. M., John W. Hall, A. Harper, T. Harris, Irving, Westcott, and J. Wood, of Bristol; and Messrs. Liddiard, Foort, and Palmer, of Bath.

WOODHOUSE-GROVE SCHOOL.—The Rev. Robert Newton, Chairman; Rev. George Morley, Local Treasurer; Rev. Edward Walker, Secretary; Rev. Messrs. A. Bell, Cusworth, Galland, Kirk, J. Sedgwick, Vevers, Pilter, W. W. Stamp, Shrewsbury, Bacon, R. Wood, P. Garrett, J. Roberts, sen., Walsh, F. A. West, Hinson, E. Jackson, Murray, and S. Allen;—with Messrs. Holmes, Selby, Cheesborough, and Walker, of Bradford; Messrs. Scarth, John Burton, Joshua Burton, W. Smith, Beverley, James Hargreaves, C. Dove, J. Musgrave, and J. Howard, of Leeds; Messrs. Swale and Suter, of Halifax; Messrs. Stocks and Swallow, of Wakefield; Messrs. Shaw and Sutcliffe, of Huddersfield; and Mr. Sutcliffe, of Willow-Hall.

4. The Private Subscriptions and Public Collections for the School-Fund are to be made in every Circuit in the month of September; and the Conference repeats and urges its recommendation to our Lay Friends to render assistance to the Preachers in procuring the Private Subscriptions. The sums allowed to Preachers, stationed in Circuits, for the education of their daughters, and of such of their sons as cannot obtain admission into the Schools, may be paid out of the amount raised in the Circuits where they are stationed, if sufficient for that purpose. In other cases, we repeat our Minute made in 1820: “The allowances for education do not become due until the next Conference, and are not to be paid in advance, except so far as the Collections and Subscriptions to the Fund in any Circuit will meet the claims of that Circuit. But when the Governors of the Schools have been fully enabled to provide for their current expenditure, if a surplus remain in the hands of the Treasurers, they may make such remittances in advance to Circuits in which the claims are large, and the contributions very small, as may suit their convenience."

5. The usual allowance for the education of the children of Deceased and Supernumerary Preachers shall, when the claim has been sanctioned by the District-Committee, be received from the Treasurers of the Auxiliary Fund; but the charge for educating those sons of Deceased or Supernumerary Preachers, who are placed at either of our Schools, shall be borne entirely by the School-Fund.

6. The names of the boys and girls to whom the Education Allowance is granted shall no longer be printed in the Annual Report; but the General Treasurers and Secretary shall furnish every Superintendent with an accurate List of them.

7. Every Superintendent is required to send to the General Treasurers a particular account of the sums contributed in his Circuit to the Fund, and of the claims made upon it; stating distinctly the names of the children for whose education the usual allowance has been paid, and the exact number of years during which the allowance has been received: and it is further expressly required, that such accounts, with any balance then in hand due to the Fund, shall be sent not later than the 15th of November. All communications are to be addressed to the REV. PHILIP C. TURNER, Methodist Chapel, Birmingham.

8. The Accounts for the year shall be closed on the 24th of June, and audited before they are presented to the General Committee at the next Conference; and, in order to this, every Superintendent is required, at the May District-Meeting, finally to correct his List of Contributions sent in November, and to pay at the same time all additional Subscriptions or Collections ; and the Financial Secretary shall send to the Treasurers such corrections, with an extract from his District-Minutes of every thing which relates to the School-Fund. This communication shall be made not later than the 31st of May.

9. At every District-Meeting, on the day on which the Circuit-Stewards are in attendance during the transaction of the financial business of the District, the Chairman is directed to inquire particularly into the amount of the Subscriptions and Collections raised for the School-Fund in each Circuit, and to compare them with the lists of the preceding year. Where any material deficiency, or want of due exertion, shall appear, the case shall be specially reported in the District-Minutes, and be brought by the Chairman before the ensuing Conference.

10. The thanks of the Conference are hereby presented to JOHN IRVING, Esq., and the REV. PHILIP C. TURNER, the late General Treasurers, and to the REV. WILLIAM P. BURGESS, the General Secretary, for their efficient discharge of the duties of their offices in the past year.

11. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the late Local Committees and Secretaries of the Schools, for their faithful and able attention to the affairs of the Schools during the year ; to the Governors and Governesses of the Schools, for their kind and diligent attention to everything affecting the comfort and welfare of the children placed under their care ; and to the Examiners, for their very efficient discharge of the duties which they kindly consented to undertake.

12. A regular Quarterly Correspondence shall take place between the Secretaries of the two Schools relative to all matters connected with the appointment and the salaries of the Teachers, and the general management and state of the Schools.

13. The cordial thanks of the Conference are hereby presented to the following contributors of five pounds and upwards, for their liberal aid to the Fund :—

BOOK AFFAIRS.

Q. XIII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference in reference to the affairs of the BOOK-ROOM?

A. 1. The REV. JOHN FARRAR is appointed the Secretary to the London Book-Committee for the year ensuing.

2. The REV. JOHN BROWN, SEN., of Bath, is re-appointed the Editor of the Child's Magazine. Communications intended for this department should be addressed to him, at No. 14, City-Road, London.

3. The REV. ROBERT NEWSTEAD is appointed the Secretary to the Methodist Tract-Committee. Communications intended for this department should be addressed to him, at No. 14, City-Road, London.

4. The General Book-Committee, which is appointed to meet on the Thursday evening previous to the next Conference, shall consist of our President and Secretary, and all the Members of the London Book-Committee who shall be duly authorized to attend the Conference; with the Rev. Messrs. John Anderson, sen., Alexander Bell, W. Clegg, sen., J. Cusworth, James Dixon, S. Dunn, J. Entwisle, sen., T. Eastwood, W. France, J. Fowler, H. Hughes, W. Jackson, W. Leach, W. Lord, G. Marsden, G. Morley, R. Reece, John Rigg, sen., B. Slater, R. Smith, Jos. Taylor, P. C. Turner, W. Vevers, R. Waddy, F. A. West, M. Wilson, R. Wood, D. Walton, and the Representatives of the Irish Conference.

5. The Ex-President, the REV. THOMAS JACKSON, having been requested last year to publish, as early as possible, a brief, but comprehensive, work on the subject of the Centenary, including, with succinct notices of the origin, progress, and present state of Wesleyan Methodism, and of the leading facts in the life and history of the revered Founder of our Societies, such remarks as may assist our friends in the devout improvement of the occasion, the very cordial and unanimous thanks of the Conference are hereby presented to him, for the prompt, able, and highly satisfactory manner in which he has fulfilled the wishes of his brethren, by the preparation of the Centenary volume.

6. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the REV. GEORGE CUBITT, for the very satisfactory manner in which he has discharged the laborious duties of Editor during the past year.

7. The thanks of the Conference are tendered to the REV. JOHN MASON, our Book-Steward, for his vigilant and successful management of the business of his office during the past year;—to the REV. JOHN BROWN, SEN., for his valuable services as Editor of the Child's Magazine;—to the REV. JOHN FARRAR, for his services as Secretary of the London Book-Committee;—and to the London Book-Committee, for their judicious and faithful direction of the affairs of the Book-Room during the past year.

8. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the REV. JOHN FARRAR, for the valuable assistance he has rendered the Editor during the past year.

9. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the REV. RICHARD TREFFRY, the Chairman of the Methodist Tract-Committee; to the REV. ROBERT NEWSTEAD, the Secretary; to those Preachers who have supplied new Tracts; and to the Committee, for the vigour and efficiency with which they have discharged their duties during the year.

10. The London Book-Committee having recommended that an Edition of the First Catechism should be published, in which the answers to each question should be put in the form of a complete proposition, embodying the entire sense of the question and answer, without any alteration in the words; and also that a Key should be published, adapted to this particular edition; the Conference adopts the recommendation of the Committee, and directs that such an edition of the Catechism and Key be published. Mr. Wesley's "Abridgment of the Order for the Administration of Baptism and the Lord's Supper" shall be published, in one convenient volume, distinct from the other parts of the Liturgy.

CHAPEL AFFAIRS.

Q. XIV. What are the Resolutions of the Conference with regard to the GENERAL CHAPEL-FUND, the CHAPEL LOAN-FUND, and the CENTENARY CHAPEL RELIEF-FUND?

A. 1. The cordial thanks of the Conference are hereby presented to THOMAS MARRIOTT, Esq., and the REV. SAMUEL JACKSON, the Treasurers of the General Chapel-Fund, for their diligent and faithful services during the past year; and they are hereby appointed to that office during the next year.

2. The cordial thanks of the Conference are hereby presented to JAMES HEALD, Esq., and JOHN FERNLEY, Esq., the Treasurers of the Loan-Fund, for their important and valuable services during the past year.

3. The thanks of the Conference are hereby presented to the Lay-Gentlemen of the Chapel Loan-Fund Sub-Committee, and especially to MR. THOMAS CROOK, of Liverpool, and MR. W. ROBINSON, of Southport, for their kind and efficient services during the past year.

4. The thanks of the Conference are hereby presented to the REV. ROBERT WOOD, and the REV. FRANCIS A. WEST, the Secretaries of the General Chapel-Fund, for their services during the past year.

5. The Committee of Distribution of the General Chapel-Fund, which will meet in Newcastle-upon-Tyne, on the Monday previous to the next Conference, shall consist of our President and Secretary, the Treasurers and Secretaries of the General Chapel-Fund, the Treasurer and Secretaries of the Chapel Loan-Fund, and the Treasurer and Secretaries of the Centenary Chapel Relief-Fund; the Rev. Messrs. Atherton, John Anderson, sen., Dr. Bunting, J. Davis, J. Dixon, J. Fowler, T. Harris, W. Lord, G. Marsden, W. Naylor, R. Reece, J. Scott, R. Treffry, W. Vevers, and R. Waddy; with fifteen Trustees, (not being Travelling Preachers,) to be chosen by the June Quarterly Meetings, of the under-named Circuits, viz., two at Newcastle (West), two at Sunderland, and one from each of the following places,—Newcastle (East), Gateshead, North-Shields, South-Shields, Liverpool (North), Manchester (3d), Leeds (East), York, Stockton, Darlington, and Whitby.

6. The Conference unanimously adopt the following Resolutions of the Chapel Loan-Fund Sub-Committee, as presented in the Report of the General Chapel-Fund Committee:—

“ The Loan-Fund Sub-Committee, on finding that the remaining applications for Final Grants are exceedingly numerous, and require a very large amount of Funds for their relief, are of opinion that they would not be justified in making any additional Grants, as they have already gone beyond the means placed at the disposal of the Committee by the Conference of 1832. Under these circumstances, they unanimously adopt the following Resolutions:—

“ I. That this Committee—devoutly thankful for the success which has crowned the operations of the present Loan system, by means of which, in conjunction with the efforts of Trustees, and other friends, Chapel Debts to the amount of upwards of £100,000 have been extinguished; feeling, as they do, the liveliest interest in the prosperity of the system for the relief of Distressed Chapels; and rejoicing in the hope that the day is not far distant when the present distressing embarrassments of Chapel-Trusts in our Connexion will be effectually relieved—are of opinion that it will tend to the furtherance of that important object, and they therefore recommend to the Conference, to appoint a new and distinct Committee for the distribution of the Grant from the Centenary Fund. They also deem it advisable, that in the constitution of that Committee, the Conference should take advantage of the large amount of experience which many members of the present Committee have acquired in working the Loan system.

“II. That, in order to the completion of the present Loan system, the Committee request that a small Committee may be appointed from year to year. They beg at the same time strongly to urge the claims of the Loan-Fund, and the paramount importance of keeping up the present amount of the General Chapel-Fund; strenuous efforts on behalf of which, both by subscriptions and public collections, must continue to be made year by year, as the proper and only means of carrying out the principles of the Loan-Fund, and of completing the scheme laid down by the Committee in the ‘Prospective Statement’ presented to the General Chapel-Fund Committee, and sanctioned by the Conference in 1837.

“III. That all Bequests and Donations to the General Chapel-Fund, together with the balance of its income beyond £4750, and the amount of Annual Grants, be paid, according to a previous Resolution of Conference, to the Treasurer of the Chapel Loan-Fund, in liquidation of the amount yet remaining due for Loans and Interest; and it is further recommended, that all cases now before the Committee of that Fund, the Grants for which are not completed, be transferred to the Committee of the new Fund.”

The Conference therefore appoint the following Subcommittee of the LOAN-FUND to secure the honourable fulfilment of the engagements of the Connexion with parties who have furnished Loans, to meet as often as they may find it expedient; viz., the Rev. Messrs. Joseph Taylor, Robert Wood, John Anderson, sen., and Francis A. West;—with Messrs. James Heald, John Fernley, Thomas Crook, and William Robinson. James Heald, Esq., is requested to accept the office of Treasurer; and the Rev. Robert Wood, and Mr. William Robinson, are requested to become the Secretaries of the Loan-Fund.

7. THE CENTENARY CHAPEL RELIEF COMMITTEE, for the distribution of the Grant from the Centenary Fund, for the aid of distressed Chapels, shall consist of the following persons; viz., the President and Secretary of the Conference, the Rev. Thomas Jackson, (the Ex-President,) the Treasurer and Secretaries of the General Centenary Fund; the Treasurers and Secretaries of the General Chapel and Loan Funds; and the Rev. Messrs. John Anderson, sen., Dr. Bunting, Joseph Cusworth, James Dixon, Thomas Dunn, James Heaton, William Horton, Timothy Ingle, Peter M'Owan, George Marsden, James Methley, John Rigg, John Scott, Barnard Slater, John Smith, 3d, Thomas Stead, John S. Stamp, Joseph Taylor, and Richard Waddy;—with Messrs. A. Braik, G. R. Chappell, John Fernley, John Marsden, and J. P. Westhead, of Manchester; M. Ashton, T. Crook, and T. Sands, of Liverpool; R. Bealey, of Sheffield; P. Rothwell, of Bolton; T. Bowers, of Chester; T. Farmer, of London; S. Bennett, of Bedford; A. Suter, of Halifax; J. Sutcliffe, of Sowerby-Bridge; W. G. Scarth and C. Dove, of Leeds; G. B. Thorneycroft, of Wolverhampton; J. Nussey, of Birstal; J. Meek, of York; and J. Henwood, of Hull. John Burton, Esq., of Manchester, is requested to accept the office of Treasurer of the Centenary Chapel Relief-Fund; and the Rev. F. A. West, the Rev. Benjamin B. Waddy, and Mr. John Chubb, are appointed Secretaries for the ensuing year.

All letters of application for Final Grants, accompanied by Schedules, properly filled up and signed, are to be addressed (post-paid) to the Rev. F. A. West, Methodist Chapel, Halifax. The Treasurer and Secretaries are to be considered as ex-officio members of the Committee.

This Committee (who have power to add to their number, if they deem it expedient) are directed to consider the applications of the Trustees of distressed Chapels for relief, by Final Grants, for the reduction of debt, and to decide what proportions of the amount to be liquidated shall be raised by the Trustees and friends of each Chapel to be relieved. The Committee are requested to hold their first Meeting, in the Vestry of Oldham-street Chapel, Manchester, on the 9th day of October next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon; and to meet subsequently by such adjournments as they from time to time deem expedient.

[See in the Appendix, page 190, the second Resolution of the General Centenary Committee.]

8. To ensure greater punctuality in the transmission of the Collections and Subscriptions to the General Chapel-Fund, the Chairmen of Districts are hereby directed to make inquiry, in their respective District-Meetings, whether the Rule requiring such Collections and Subscriptions to be transmitted to the Treasurers before the end of March has been observed, and to insert an answer to that inquiry in the District-Minutes.

9. The Conference directs that every application to the General Chapel-Fund Committee shall be accompanied by a regular Chapel-Schedule, duly filled up, and signed by the Chairman of the District, in the District-Meeting; and it further directs that the said Schedules shall be forwarded to the General Treasurers of the Chapel-Fund, before July 1st; and that all cases in which this latter direction shall not have been complied with shall be postponed for one year.

10. The General Chapel-Fund Committee shall annually revise the cases recorded in the Minute-Book of the Chapel-Building Committee, and call for proof of the fulfilment of the prescribed conditions.

11. That, for the future, it shall be a condition of affording relief to any Chapel case, that the Trustees shall engage permanently to subscribe to the General Chapel-Fund.

12. That, in order to a more complete examination of the cases presented for the sanction of the District-Meetings for relief from the General Chapel-Fund, Schedule-Books be provided for every District, in which the particulars of each application shall be registered; and that the Chairmen of Districts be required to compare such Schedules year by year, and to see that proper local exertions have been made for the relief of each case, before it is presented to the District-Meeting, especially by the best efforts on Anniversary occasions, without which no case can be entertained by the General Chapel-Fund Committee.

CHAPEL-BUILDING COMMITTEE.

Q. XV. Who are the CHAPEL-BUILDING COMMITTEE (without whose previous consent, obtained in writing, no chapel, whether large or small, is to be erected, purchased, or enlarged) for the ensuing year?

A. 1. The Rev. Messrs. Joseph Taylor, John Rigg, Barnard Slater, Timothy Ingle, James Methley, John Smith, 3d, Thomas Dickin, and George Steward, of Manchester; Robert Wood, of Huddersfield; and Francis A. West, of Halifax;—with Messrs. John Marsden, James Wood, G. R. Chappell, John Fernley, John Lomas, Robert Henson, A. Braik, William Allen, James Fildes, T. P. Bunting, and Dr. Wood, of Manchester; James Heald, of Stockport; John D. Burton, of Middleton; and M. Ashton, and T. Crook, of Liverpool.

2. This Committee, who have power to add to their number if they deem it expedient, are requested to meet regularly on the first Wednesday in every month; and no permission to erect, purchase, or enlarge any chapel shall be granted, unless at least seven members of the Committee be present.

3. The thanks of the Conference are hereby presented to the REV. JOSEPH TAYLOR, and the REV. JOHN RIGG, the Chairman and Secretary, and to the other Members of the Committee, for their diligent attention to the business brought before them during the past year. The REV. JOSEPH TAYLOR is re-appointed the Chairman, and the REV. JOHN RIGG, the Secretary, of this Committee. All letters on the subject of Chapels should be addressed to the Rev. John Rigg, Methodist Chapel, Oldham-street, Manchester. It is particularly requested that such letters may be post-paid.

4. The Preachers, and others whom it may concern, are reminded that, according to Rule, "no case shall be sanctioned by the Committee, unless it shall come before them as having received the previous approbation of the Quarterly Meeting of the Circuit, and shall be recommended either by the Financial District-Meeting in September, or by the Annual District-Meeting in May."

5. In future all applications for the permission of Conference for the sale of Chapels shall be first examined by the Chapel-Building Committee, and shall through that Committee be presented to the Conference. Schedules are to be prepared for the purpose by the Secretary of the Chapel-Building Committee, which may be had from Mr. Mason, the Book-Steward.

6. The Chapel-Building Committee are instructed, when their permission is given for the erection of any chapel, to accompany it with an earnest request that the Trustees will subscribe annually, according to their means, from their Trust-Funds, in aid of the Chapel-Fund. (See also Q. xiv., A. 11, p. 109, of these Minutes.)

7. A copy of the conditions on which the Chapel-Building Committee shall agree to sanction the erection, purchase, or enlargement of any chapel, shall be sent to the Trustees of the said chapel for insertion in their Trust-Book, and another to the Superintendent of the Circuit, to be entered in the Circuit-Book.

8. In order that the Chapel-Building Committee may have a fuller assurance than at present they can obtain, that a Chapel of the proposed dimensions and materials can be built at the place for the sum specified, the Conference directs, that no Superintendent shall sanction by his signature any application of Trustees to the Committee, until they have furnished plans, specifications, and estimates.

9. If in any Circuit it be deemed probable that the erection of a new chapel will be requisite after the Conference, and before the month of April, the plans, specifications, and estimates of which cannot be submitted to the Financial District-Meeting in September, the Chairman of that Meeting shall by letter state to the Building-Committee the opinion of the Meeting as to the expediency of such erection; and in such cases the permission of the Chapel-Building Committee shall be a sufficient warrant for their procedure, that Committee paying special attention to the examination of such cases when the details shall come before them.

10. Instead of the regulation which requires that a "copy of the conditions on which the Chapel-Building Committee may agree to sanction the erection, purchase, or enlargement of any chapel" shall be sent to the Chairman of the District, the Conference directs that a Schedule be sent every year by the Secretary to the Chairmen of Districts, containing the particulars of the cases in each District, in which permission has been granted during the year to build or enlarge chapels; the Schedule to be returned to the Secretary immediately after the District-Meeting, that he may be prepared to report to the General Chapel-Fund Committee, and to the Conference, how far the prescribed conditions have been observed.

11. The Superintendents are especially requested in every case to give all the particulars required by the new printed Forms, both for applications to build and to enlarge chapels, as written letters are found to be generally so defective as to occasion unnecessary trouble and delay.

* * * Proper printed forms of application to the Chapel-Building Committee, for permission to erect new Chapels, &c., may be had from Mr. Mason, the Book-Steward.

CHILDREN'S FUND.

Q. XVI. What are the Resolutions of the Conference respecting the CHILDREN'S FUND?

A. 1. The thanks of the Conference are hereby presented to the District Treasurers of the Children's Fund throughout the kingdom, for their kind services during the year; and also to the REV. JOHN S. STAMP, and W. G. SCARTH, Esq., the General Treasurers, and to the REV. S. D. WADDY, the General Secretary, of this Fund.

2. The REV. JOHN S. STAMP, and W. G. SCARTH, Esq., are appointed the General Treasurers, and the REV. S. D. WADDY is re-appointed the General Secretary, for the ensuing year.

3. All letters on business relating to this Fund should be addressed (post-paid) to the REV. JOHN S. STAMP, Methodist Chapel, Sheffield.

4. From the reports of the District-Meetings, as to the probable number of Children's allowances to be provided by this Fund in the ensuing year, taking into consideration the increased demand upon its resources by the provision which is now made for the children of worn-out and deceased Preachers, it appears that the ratio of contribution, in proportion to numbers in Society, may be as follows:—One hundred and thirty-two members are to provide the allowance of one child, and so onwards, in regular proportion. On this principle, and in conformity with the regulations passed at the Conference in 1820, in reference to fractional numbers, the following statement has been drawn up. It determines the number of Children's allowances for which each District is responsible in the year 1839-1840, and which must be divided by the September District-Meeting, according to rule, among the several Circuits included in it.

CONTINGENT FUND.

Q. XVII. Who are appointed to act for the ensuing year, as the General Treasurers and Secretaries, and also as the Committee, of the CONTINGENT FUND?

A. 1. MICHAEL ASHTON, Esq., of Liverpool, and the REV. JOSEPH CUSWORTH, are the Treasurers; and the REV. W. FRANCE and the REV. S. HOPE are the Secretaries. The Committee are, the President and Secretary of the Conference; the Treasurers and Secretary of the Children's Fund; the Rev. Messrs. Atherton, A. Bell, Dr. Bunting, Grindrod, T. Jackson, Leach, Mason, G. Marsden, Naylor, Pilter, Reece, Rigg, B. Slater, R. Waddy, R. Wood, and Treffry; with three Gentlemen, members of our Society, to be chosen by the Circuit-Stewards present at the next May Meeting of the Newcastle District, and two Gentlemen, members of our Society, to be similarly elected for the Manchester and Bolton District; and one for each of the following Districts, viz., London, Birmingham and Shrewsbury, Halifax and Bradford, Liverpool, Leeds, Sheffield, Hull, York, Whitby and Darlington, and Carlisle.

N.B. All letters respecting this Fund should be addressed to the REV. JOSEPH CUSWORTH, East-Parade, Leeds.

2. The Committee appointed to determine the maximum of Allowances to be made for Ordinaries to the several Districts out of the Contingent Fund for 1840, after examining the probable income of that year, on the one hand, and the probable comparative necessities of each District, on the other hand, (taking into the account the increase or decrease of expense in the several Circuits of each District,) came to the following conclusions, which are now printed, in conformity with the order of the Conference, for the information and Direction of the Circuits and of the September District-Meetings; viz.,—

PREACHERS' AUXILIARY FUND.

Q. XVIII. Who are the Committee of the PREACHERS' AUXILIARY FUND, appointed to consider and decide upon such cases of Supernumerary and Superannuated Preachers, and of the Widows and Families of Deceased Preachers, as may be recommended by the District-Meetings, in the ensuing year, for relief from that Fund?

A. The President and Secretary of the Conference, the Treasurer of the Seniors' Fund, the Rev. Dr. Bunting, Messrs. Cusworth, Grindrod, Haswell, T. Jackson, Marsden, Reece, J. Taylor, Treffry, Waddy, and R. Wood; with Messrs. T. Crook, and Sands, of Liverpool; John Marsden, and G. R. Chappell, of Manchester; Farmer, of London; Heald, of Stockport; John Burton, and Scarth, of Leeds; Allen, of Macclesfield; Riggall, of Louth; and T. C. Gibson, of Newcastle.

N. B. Should any of the persons belonging to this Committee be unable to attend its meeting on the Saturday previous to the assembling of the next Conference, early notice must be sent to the PRESIDENT, who has authority to appoint substitutes.

Q. XIX. Who are appointed the TREASURERS and SECRETARY of the Auxiliary Fund for the ensuing year?

A. 1. JAMES WOOD, Esq., of Manchester, and the REV. JOHN SCOTT, of London, are appointed the Treasurers; and the REV. THOMAS EASTWOOD, of Wednesbury, is the Secretary.

2. The cordial thanks of the Conference are presented to JAMES WOOD, Esq., and the REV. JOHN SCOTT, for their services as Treasurers, and to the REV. THOMAS EASTWOOD, for his services as Secretary, during the past year.

N. B. 1. The Chairmen of Districts are required to send to the Secretary of this Fund (whose address is, Methodist Chapel, Wednesbury) such parts of the Minutes of the District-Meetings as relate to the Auxiliary Fund, immediately after the meeting of their Districts; in order that he may have sufficient time, before he leaves his Circuit to attend the Conference, to arrange and prepare the cases recommended to the consideration of the Committee.

2. The Chairmen of Districts shall inquire at the Annual District-Meetings, what children of Supernumerary Preachers, and of Deceased Preachers, are entitled to the usual allowance for Education; and the names of such children shall be immediately transmitted, together with any other claims which may be made upon the Auxiliary Fund, to Mr. Eastwood, that he may prepare an entire list of them, to be laid before the Committee, previously to the ensuing Conference.

3. To promote the general advantage of the Fund, and to enable the Committee at their Meeting previously to the next Conference at once to determine the amount to be divided among the several claimants, the Conference directs that the Subscriptions to the Fund shall be collected every year during the first week in June; and that each Superintendent shall transmit an account of the sum subscribed, with a list of Subscribers, to the Secretary, not later than the 24th of the same month.

4. The cordial thanks of the Conference are specially presented to the following Friends, for their generous contributions to the Auxiliary Fund; viz.,—

PROPOSED NEW AUXILIARY FUND

FOR SUPERNUMERARY PREACHERS AND PREACHERS'
WIDOWS.

Q. XX. What is the result of the deliberations of the General Centenary Committee, to whom the Conference of last year referred (see Minutes of 1838, p. 117 and 119, Q. XXIII.) the proposal, addressed to it by the Bristol Centenary Committee, for making a more regular and adequate PROVISION for our SUPERNUMERARY PREACHERS, and for the WIDOWS of our Deceased Preachers?

A. 1. The General Centenary Committee have reported as follows; viz.,—

(1.) That at a numerous Meeting, held at Manchester, in November, 1838, the subject formed one of the most prominent and deeply interesting topics which came under their consideration; and that ample evidence was afforded of the universal conviction of our people, that a better provision for our Worn-out Ministers, and for the Widows of our Deceased Preachers, is demanded by every principle of justice, and by every feeling of Christian sympathy and kindness, and ought not to be longer neglected or delayed.

(2.) That they then, after much preliminary discussion, appointed a Sub-Committee to prepare and digest a PLAN for carrying into effect this great object.

(3.) That at a subsequent and numerous Meeting, held at Manchester, in February, 1839, the Plan prepared by the Sub-Committee was presented, and, after various discussions and modifications, was unanimously approved, and ordered to be sent to the several Annual District-Meetings in the month of May, in strict and scrupulous conformity with the Rule enacted in the year 1815, which requires, "That no new proposal which is designed to effect a general augmentation of the income of the Preachers in the Connexion at large, shall be definitively adopted as a Rule, until it shall have received the assent of a majority of the District-Meetings throughout the kingdom, at the time when the financial affairs of the Districts are transacted; during which time, according to an existing Rule, the Circuit-Stewards of every Circuit in the District are to be invited to attend the District-Meeting, and shall have a right to vote on every such proposal respecting any general increase of allowances."

(4.) That the result of this reference to the District-Meetings has been most satisfactory; inasmuch as it appears from official documents, that the object in view was most cordially approved by every District-Meeting without exception, and that the particular Plan of accomplishing it, recommended by the Committee, was also very generally considered to be, on the whole, the best that could be arranged, and indeed the only practicable and efficient Plan which has yet been suggested.

(5.) That at a recent Meeting of the Centenary Committee, held in Liverpool during the session of this Conference, and very numerously attended both by Preachers, and by Lay-Members, who were qualified to represent the general views and feelings of our Societies throughout Great Britain and Ireland, the subject again received the most patient and deliberate attention; when it was unanimously resolved, That the Plan forwarded to the District-Meetings is by this Committee most earnestly recommended to the immediate adoption and sanction of the Conference, as the best, and in fact the only certain, means of raising the amount which will be annually required for the attainment of an object now universally deemed just and necessary, and to which the faith of the Connexion must be considered as solemnly pledged, by the constant recognition of its equity and importance which has been made at the various Centenary Meetings, and District-Meetings, during the course of the last year: but that, in order to meet as far as possible, without infringing or weakening the general Rule, the views of several friends, and the peculiar local circumstances of a few Circuits, the Committee recommend that the 3d clause of the 7th Article of the printed Plan, which provides that, "if it should happen in any case, that the amount received in the Classes should fall below the quota chargeable on the Circuit, the Treasurer of that Circuit shall confer with the Preachers and Friends of the Circuit, on the best method of making up that quota by some other means," should be understood as allowing to any Circuit, which may find it absolutely necessary, some degree of latitude and discretion, both as to the particular month in which the applications for the New Auxiliary Fund are to be made to the Members of our Society, and as to the specific mode to be adopted for raising the sum required: Provided always, That every Circuit be held responsible to its Circuit-Treasurer, and through him to the General Treasurer, and to the Connexion at large, for raising by some means the whole sum annually charged upon it for this common object, in proportion to the number of its members in Society.

2. On receiving and considering this Report of the General Centenary Committee, the Conference unanimously resolves,

(1.) That the Conference records, with the liveliest emotions of respect, affection, and gratitude, its sense of obligation to those large bodies of our people who have evinced their deep interest in the case of our Supernumerary Preachers and Widows; and especially to the Gentlemen of the General Centenary Committee, and to the Sub-Committee, who have so carefully prepared the PLAN now submitted for its formal sanction, and to the Circuit-Stewards who, on behalf of their several Circuits, signified in the various District-Meetings their official assent to the principles and substance of that

PLAN. And the Conference earnestly trusts, and is persuaded, that this new demonstration of the confirmed attachment of our beloved people to the system of Wesleyan Methodism, and of their affectionate concern for the Ministry of their choice, will be felt by the whole body of the Preachers, as an additional motive to “spend and be spent” in the service of their Great Master, and of that section of his church with which they have the honour and privilege of being connected.

(2.) That the Conference now fully adopts and sanctions the “PLAN for the Supernumerary Preachers’ and Widows’ New Auxiliary Fund,” which has been so generously recommended, and generally approved; directs that the said PLAN, together with the Statement which is prefixed to it, shall be printed as an official document, in connexion with the usual MINUTES of its proceedings, for the present year; (see pp. 179-189;) and readily agrees to the construction and modification of the 3d clause of the 7th Article, proposed by the Committee as above stated,—earnestly recommending, however, wherever it is at all practicable, the adoption of the entire plan, as best calculated to secure, in a large Connexion, the uniformity of operation, and ultimate efficiency, which are so exceedingly to be desired.

(3.) That the warmest thanks of the Conference are hereby tendered to the Appropriation Sub-Committee of the Centenary Fund, for their noble Grant of £9000 to the New Auxiliary Fund; which Grant (in conjunction with the Private Donations, which are for the present to be collected, as usual, in the first week of June) will enable the Committee who shall meet in Newcastle-upon-Tyne, at the Conference of 1840, to begin their operations without delay, and to proceed, at that time, upon the new Scale of augmented Grants to the regular claimants on the Fund; while the commencement of the annual application to the Classes will, for the very satisfactory reasons assigned by the Committee, be postponed till January, 1841, so as to be available for the distribution of the then next ensuing Conference.

(4.) That while the Conference gratefully appreciates the kind and considerate manner in which the Committee, and especially the Lay-Members of it, have presented their Plan for its adoption, wholly unfettered, and unqualified by restrictions, and including all Supernumeraries and Preachers' Widows, as such, it feels itself so much the more bound to provide, by its own voluntary precautions, against possible perversions of the New Fund from its fair and proper application ; and therefore adopts the following

REGULATIONS RESPECTING THE CLAIMS AND PRIVILEGES OF CERTAIN SUPER- NUMERARY PREACHERS.

1. When a Preacher, declared by the Conference to be a Supernumerary, shall have travelled eighteen years or upwards, it should be assumed, as a general principle, that he ought not to be advised to go into business, but should employ the remainder of his life and strength in such occasional ministerial and pastoral services as his health may permit, and as the Conference, with due regard to his family circumstances, or local connexions, may appoint, and should receive, as matter of course, the aid of the New Auxiliary Fund, according to his standing.

2. Every Preacher, declared by the Conference to be a Supernumerary, having travelled less than eighteen years, shall be considered as entitled to receive, as matter of course, the aid of the New Auxiliary Fund for the term of three years ; but that at the expiration of that term, his case shall be specially considered by the Conference with a view to decide whether the hand of God shall have been so laid upon him by affliction, or otherwise, as to make it clear that, under all the circumstances, he ought, or ought not, to employ himself in some suitable business, so as to exempt him from the necessity of applying for the additional aid afforded by the New Auxiliary Fund. That the terms of his being brought under such an exemption, if it be advised, in reference to the Contingent Fund, the Children's Fund, and the Education Fund, be settled by special stipulation, in each particular case, according to circumstances ; and that he shall then cease to be regarded as a Supernumerary, and become an accredited Local Preacher: but that if the Conference do not advise his entrance into business at all, he shall then be certified to the Auxiliary Fund Committee, as a Supernumerary Preacher, entitled, according to his standing, as a matter of course, to the additional pecuniary benefits provided by that Fund.

3. Any Preacher, declared a Supernumerary, and having travelled less than eighteen years, who, being advised by the Conference to enter into business, refuses or neglects to do so, shall have no further claim as matter of course on the New Auxiliary Fund; but his case may be referred, if recommended by his District-Meeting, for discretionary relief to the Auxiliary Fund Committee.

4. All Supernumerary Preachers, whatever may be their standing in the work, who shall in future enter into business, whether with the advice of the Conference, or by their own choice and decisions, shall be considered as accredited Local Preachers only, and not entitled to have their names retained in our Journal, or on our Minutes.

5. In the case of Supernumeraries marrying after they become such, the same regulations shall be considered as in force with respect to the New Auxiliary Fund, which are now adopted in similar cases by the Preachers' Annuitant Society.

WESLEYAN THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTION.

Q. XXI. What does the Conference resolve on the Report of the Committee of the WESLEYAN THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTION?

A. 1. That Report is received this year, as in past years, with both satisfaction and thankfulness; and the Conference approves of the conduct of the Committee of Management in the steps taken by them, in the course of the last year, to extend the benefits of the Institution to a larger number of Students.

2. The thanks of the Conference are hereby presented to the REV. DR. BUNTING, the President of the Institution, for his very valuable counsels and services during the past year; and to the REV. RICHARD TREFFRY, the House-Governor, for his valuable services.

3. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the REV. JOHN HANNAH, SEN., the Theological Tutor, and to the REV. SAMUEL JONES, A.M., the Classical and Mathematical Tutor, for their very efficient and satisfactory performance of the duties of their respective offices.

4. The thanks of the Conference are presented to THOMAS FARMER, ESQ., the Treasurer of the Institution; to the REV. JOHN BOWERS, and the REV. GEORGE CUBITT, the Secretaries; and to the Members of the Committee of Management; for their vigilant and unwearied care of the concerns of the Institution during the past year.

5. The REV. DR. BUNTING is re-appointed to the office of President; the REV. RICHARD TREFFRY is re-appointed to the office of House-Governor; MR. FARMER is also respectfully requested to continue in his office as Treasurer; and MESSRS. BOWERS and CUBITT are re-appointed Secretaries.

6. The Conference declares that the appointment of the House-Governor, like that of a Preacher to a Circuit, is from year to year, and is not, as is the case of our regular Itinerancy, to extend beyond three successive years.

7. The Preachers are directed to collect the Donations and Subscriptions which may have been promised in their respective Circuits, and any others which they may be able to procure, in aid of the Funds of the Institution, during the first and second weeks of the month of January in each year; and to remit them to the Treasurer, addressed, Wesleyan Theological Institution, Hoxton, London, not later than the end of January.

8. The second year which each Student may spend at the Institution shall be reckoned to him, when he is received on trial as a Preacher, as the first of the four years of probation now required by our rule;—provided that the officers and the Committee of the Institution recommend such Student as having conducted himself with Christian propriety and diligence.

9. The object of the preparatory examination of Preachers on the List of Reserve, by the London District-Meeting, as appointed in the Minutes of 1834, being, in the strictest sense, a Connexional one, the expense which may be incurred by attending that examination shall be provided for by a Connexional Fund, at least in all those cases in which it cannot be defrayed by the Candidates themselves; the Conference regarding it as an equitable principle, that the funds of the Institution should not be chargeable with any expense, excepting for that select class of Candidates for our ministry who are, after the examination, finally taken under its care, nor even for them, until they become actually resident, as Students, in the Institution-House.

10. The Committee of Management for the ensuing year shall consist of the following persons; viz., The President and Secretary of the Conference; the President, House-Governor, Tutors, Treasurer, and Secretaries of the Institution; the Rev. John Scott, as one of the Treasurers of the Wesleyan Missionary Society; the Secretaries of that Society; the Book-Steward; the Rev. Messrs. W. Stewart and T. Waugh, on behalf of the Irish Connexion;—with the following Ministers and Gentlemen, viz.,

Rev. William Atherton, London,	Rev. James Dixon, Sheffield,
Richard Bealey, Esq., Sheffield,	Rev. Jonathan Edmondson,
Rev. William P. Burgess, London,	A.M., Portsmouth,
Rev. William M. Bunting,	J. S. Elliott, Esq., London,
Manchester,	Rev. Joseph Entwisle, sen., Tad-
T. P. Bunting, Esq., Manchester,	caster,
J. J. Buttress, Esq., London,	John Fernley, Esq., Manchester,
J. M. Camplin, Esq., London,	Mr. Thomas Frid, London,
Thomas Crook, Esq., Liverpool,	Rev. Thomas Galland, M. A.,
Rev. Henry Davies, London,	Leeds,
Rev. John Davis, sen., London,	Rev. E. Grindrod, London,
	James Heald, Esq., Stockport,

Rev. John P. Haswell, London, James Hoby, Esq., London, James Hunter, Esq., London, John Irving Esq., Bristol, Rev. Thomas Jackson, London, Rev. Samuel Jackson, London, Mr. William Jenkins, London, William F. Johnson, Esq., Man- chester, William Judd, Esq., London, Rev. Isaac Keeling, London, Mr. Peter Kruse, London, Rev. William Leach, Rother- ham, Henry Longden, Esq., Sheffield, Rev. George Marsden, Notting- ham, John Marsden, Esq., Manches- ter, Rev. Thomas Martin, London, Rev. George Osborn, London,	Rev. Robert Newstead, London, W. F. Pocock, Esq., London, Thomas F. Rance, Esq., Lon- don, Rev. Richard Reece, Hull, R. M. Reece, Esq., London, Humphry Sandwith, M. D., London, William G. Scarth, Esq., Leeds, Rev. B. Slater, Manchester, Rev. Joseph Sutcliffe, A. M., London, Rev. William Vevers, Bramley, Rev. Richard Waddy, Stour- port, Rev. Daniel Walton, Birming- ham, James Wood, Esq., Manchester, Rev. Robert Wood, Hudders- field.

N.B. The Rev. Messrs. J. Taylor, Rigg, Methley, and P. M'OWan, with such Members of the General Committee as are resident in the Manchester, Liverpool, Leeds, Sheffield and Halifax Districts, in conjunction with the Officers of the Institution, shall be a Sub-Committee, with power to add to their number, to look out for a situation suitable for the purposes of an Institution-House, in the neighbourhood of Manchester; and especially to be in readiness to consider, and report to the General Committee, any offer of property which may be presented during the next year. [See in the Appendix, pp. 191, 192, the sixth Resolution of the General Centenary Committee.]

11. The experiment of receiving, as out-door Students, those Candidates for our ministry who could not be accommodated in the Institution-House, while it has most beneficially extended the advantages of the Institution, has also plainly shown the great desirableness of placing all the Students under regular and official superintendence, and of providing more fully and directly for the elementary instruction of those whose education has been defective. The Conference therefore resolves, on the unanimous recommendation of the Committee, that, at least until a larger Institution-House can be erected, an additional house shall be rented, in the neighbourhood of London, to afford suitable accommodation for a Preparatory Branch of the Establishment; and that the REV. JOHN FARRAR be now appointed the Tutor and Governor of the Preparatory Branch of the Institution.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION.

Q. XXII. What is the opinion of the Conference on the Report now presented by the Wesleyan EDUCATION COMMITTEE, appointed last year, and on the general subject of the duties which we owe to the children and young people of our community?

A. 1. The Conference has received that Report with much satisfaction. The printed Minutes of last year stated that the Conference was then "deeply impressed with the magnitude and urgency of the subject, as affecting the obligations and privileges of the Wesleyan body," and with "the utility and necessity of Wesleyan Infant and Day Schools, conducted on those principles which, as Wesleyan Methodists, our people are bound to prefer, wherever practicable." The Conference now feels that impression to be deepened, and that necessity rendered more urgent by the present state of the public mind, and by events which have occurred in the course of the past year.

2. The Conference approves of the general principles of the "Plan for the promotion of Religious Education in connexion with the Wesleyan body," which has been submitted to them by the Rev. Samuel Jackson; and recommends it to the Committee to be revised, completed, published, and carried into practical operation. To them, in conjunction with the Committee of Privileges, is also again confided the duty of watching over the rights and interests of our Societies, as they may be involved in any legislative or other proceedings on the question of National Education.

3. The said Committee shall consist of the following persons; viz., the President and Secretary, the Rev. Thomas Jackson, (Ex-President,) the Rev. Dr. Bunting, the Rev. Messrs. Treffry, Grindrod, Atherton, Mason, Scott, Cubitt, Haswell, Isaac Keeling, A. Stead, and Kelk; with Messrs. Farmer, Elliott, Gabriel, sen., Calder, Frid, J. R. Brown, Judd, Kruse, Storr, Robert Smith, Hoby, Ince, and Chappelow; with power to add to their number. James Hunter, Esq., is appointed the Treasurer, the Rev. Samuel Jackson the Visiting and Inspecting Secretary, and the Rev. Messrs. R. Newstead and G. Osborn, Assistant Secretaries.

4. The Preachers are solemnly enjoined to hold regular weekly Meetings with the children of our people, under the age of fourteen, on the most convenient day of the week, in every town where a Preacher has his stated residence, according to our ancient rule and practice.

5. The attention of our Preachers is earnestly directed to the necessity and importance of making some effectual arrangement in every town where a Preacher resides for obtaining pastoral access, at stated times, to the young persons of Methodist families, between the ages of fourteen and twenty, with a view to promote their spiritual welfare by instruction, exhortation, and prayer.

NATIONAL EDUCATION.

Q. XXIII. What is the judgment of the Conference with respect to the measures which were adopted by the London United Committees, to promote PETITIONS in the various Societies and Congregations of the Connexion against the grant of public money in support of the plans of Education proposed by the recently appointed Committee of Privy Council?

A. 1. The Conference, in its deliberate judgment, resolves, that the OCCASION, which especially called for vigilant and active exertions, constituted a full and perfect justification of the proceedings in question. The attempt to allow the introduction of the Roman Catholic version of the Scriptures into the Normal School, which it was proposed to establish and support by a grant of public money, could not but appear eminently calculated to afford facilities and means for the countenance and propagation of the corrupt and tyrannical system of Popery, highly detrimental to the best interests of this country, the security of the Protestant faith, and the spiritual welfare of the community at large, particularly of its children and youth. Besides, as several parts of the proposed measure had a directly religious bearing and tendency, deeply affecting our body, in common with all other Protestant Churches, it was imperative on our regularly constituted authorities to pursue such a course as might most promptly and effectually call forth the united efforts of the Wesleyan Connexion, to defeat a project so fraught with danger. The Conference takes this opportunity of recording its sorrow and alarm at the methods employed by different parties to revive and extend the influence of Popery in the United Kingdom, as well as in our Colonies; and considers itself called upon, by fidelity to God and his truth, as also to its own well-known principles, to pledge itself to the employment of all the Christian and legitimate means in its power to arrest the progress of this evil, and to support the general Protestantism of the country, as well as our own faith and institutions in particular.

2. The thanks of the Conference are due, and are hereby respectfully and cordially tendered, to the Preachers and Gentlemen who formed the London United Committees, for their watchful attention, exemplary zeal, and wise and Christian exertions, on this important occasion. And, farther, as the Committee of Privy Council is still in existence, and retains the POWER of promoting a scheme of National Education which would, if carried into effect, put to hazard the scriptural Christianity of the country,—trench on the right and duty of Christian Churches to educate in their own principles the children of their charge,—endanger the foundations and progress of evangelical truth, by introducing a merely secular or essentially pernicious system of education in its place,—taint society at its very springs, by bringing the children and youth of the age under a defective, irreligious, and worldly system,—and thus, in several ways, prepare the public mind for the reception of the dangerous errors of Popery,—these United Committees are affectionately directed by the Conference to watch the progress of this great national and religious question, with a view to afford a Connexional assistance to the defeat of all movements tending to establish a corrupt and anti-scriptural scheme of Education at the public expense.

3. As these Committees are especially appointed by the Conference to be the official and executive organs of its business and discipline during the intervals of its sittings, and, moreover, as their proceedings must necessarily pass in review before that body, it is obviously improper for any Wesleyan Minister to assail those proceedings, previously to the deliberation and judgment of the Conference, by appeals to the world through the medium of the public press, or otherwise: and such a practice is hereby prohibited.

CENTENARY FUND.

Q. XXIV. What does the Conference determine on the subject of the CENTENARY OF WESLEYAN METHODISM, in reference to the Principles adopted by the General Centenary Committee,—the extended and successful proceedings which have been effected by their exertions, or guided and animated by their counsel and oversight,—and such further plans and efforts as they have now recommended to the Conference?

A. 1. The Conference cordially recognises and approves the Principles adopted by the General Centenary Committee, and their proceedings generally, as well as those of the Centenary Sub-Committee in Manchester.

2. The Conference approves, in particular, of the appropriations already made by the Centenary Committee, from the Funds placed at their disposal.

3. The Conference hereby solemnly records its humble gratitude to Almighty God for the success of the Centenary Fund; and offers its cordial and grateful acknowledgments to the Members and Friends of our Societies for their unprecedented liberality, which, while it assuredly indicates the strong attachment of our people to the cause and principles of Wesleyan Methodism, and is, in that respect, eminently gratifying and encouraging to the Ministers of the Connexion, is also especially regarded by the Conference with joyful hope that this willing and abundant thank-offering of many may be a sacrifice acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.

4. The thanks of the Conference are hereby most cordially and respectfully tendered to the General Centenary Committee and Sub-Committees, and especially to the General Treasurer and Secretaries, and to those Ministers and Gentlemen who have so essentially aided the Centenary cause by their attendance on various Deputations in Great Britain and Ireland.

5. The Resolutions of the Centenary Committee, at its recent Meetings held in Liverpool, July 31st, and August 2d, have called forth the cordial congratulations, and been sanctioned by the unanimous approbation, of the Conference.

N.B. These Resolutions will be found (with other Documents connected with the New Regulations of the present Conference) in the Appendix to these Minutes. Various important matters suggested, recommended, or provided for by the Resolutions of the Centenary Committee, will be found in these Minutes under the respective departments of Connexional business to which they severally appertain; and, in particular, under the Questions on Chapel Affairs, New Auxiliary Fund, Theological Institution, and Religious Celebration of the Centenary of Methodism.

6. The President has authority to call any further

Meetings of the General Centenary Committee, which he, in conjunction with the General Treasurer and Secretaries, may judge to be expedient; giving due notice of the times and places at which such Meetings shall be held.

RELIGIOUS CELEBRATION OF THE CENTENARY OF METHODISM.

Q. XXV. What additional directions shall be given for the RELIGIOUS CELEBRATION of the Centenary of Wesleyan Methodism?

A. The ample information, on all subjects connected with this great object, which has been diffused by means of the Centenary Meetings held in various parts of the United Kingdom, and by the excellent and popular Centenary Volume, appears to have rendered unnecessary such a Special Deputation, consisting of the President, Ex-President, and Secretary, as was contemplated by the Conference of 1838. (See the Minutes of that year, page 119.) The Conference, therefore, now directs, that the Preachers of each Circuit, availing themselves of the help of the Local Preachers and Officers of our Societies, make and execute their own arrangements for the Devotional Celebration of the first complete Centenary of the United Societies of Wesleyan Methodists, as, in other respects, appointed by the Minutes of last year. The Conference recommends that the members and friends of our Societies, throughout the Connexion, unite in grateful and devout acknowledgment of the great and numerous blessings involved in the commencement and progress of Methodism, by holding simultaneous religious Meetings, on Friday, the 25th of October, 1839; that, early in the morning of that day, public prayer-meetings be held in all our principal chapels; that a public religious service be held in the forenoon and evening, as usual on the Lord's day; and that any religious festival which it may be deemed expedient to provide for the poorer members of our Societies, and for the children taught in our Sunday and week-day Schools, shall take place on the following Monday, viz., October 28th. [See in the Appendix, p. 191, the fourth Resolution of the General Centenary Committee.]

PUBLIC READING OF THE SCRIPTURES.

Q. XXVI. What does the Conference resolve for the purpose of rendering our PUBLIC RELIGIOUS SERVICES more instructive and edifying to our congregations?

A. Our rules already require, that "wherever divine service is performed in England, on the Lord's day, in Church hours, the officiating Preacher shall read either the Service of the Established Church, our venerable Father's Abridgment, or at least the Lessons appointed by the Calendar; but we recommend either the full Service, or the Abridgment." (See Minutes of Conference, vol. i., p. 323.) In addition to this regulation, which is now repeated and confirmed, the Conference further directs, that at every public religious service, whether in the afternoon or the evening of the Lord's day, or on the week-day evenings, at least one chapter of the Holy Scriptures shall be read before the sermon is preached. At every Annual Meeting of the District Committees the Chairman shall inquire whether this rule has been observed in the several Circuits of his District, and report accordingly to the Conference.

MISCELLANEOUS ORDERS AND RESOLUTIONS.

1. Return of Members in Society. The number of Members in Society, and of persons admitted on trial, as taken at the March Quarterly Visitation in each year, and faithfully reported, by a presentation of the Circuit-Schedules, at the District-Meetings, shall be the number returned on the Minutes of the following Conference.

2. District-Meetings. It is resolved that all the regular annual Meetings of the several District Committees shall be held between the 17th and 24th of May, with the exception of the North-Wales and Second South-Wales Districts, and the Scotch Districts.

3. Resolved unanimously, That the most cordial thanks of the Conference are due, and are hereby presented, to our late President, (the Rev. Thomas Jackson,) for the able, edifying, and highly acceptable manner in which he has fulfilled the arduous duties of his station, and for the whole of his official conduct during the past year.

4. Resolved unanimously, That the thanks of the Conference be presented to the Ex-President, the Rev. Thomas Jackson, for the excellent and appropriate Sermon which he delivered at the Conference Centenary service in Brunswick Chapel, in the forenoon of Monday, August 5th, 1839; and that he be earnestly requested to publish it at the earliest opportunity: also, that the President (the Rev. Theophilus Lessey) be respectfully requested to publish in the Magazine the impressive Sermon which he preached in the same Chapel in the evening of that day: also, that the Rev. John Scott be requested to publish the excellent and seasonable Sermon which he preached in Brunswick Chapel, in the forenoon service of Sunday, August 4th, 1839: and that the Ex-President be earnestly solicited to comply with the unanimous request of the Preachers who were admitted into Full Connexion, by publishing the excellent and impressive Charge which he delivered in Brunswick Chapel in the evening of Friday, August 9th, 1839.

5. Resolved unanimously, (1.) That it is highly desirable that a Representative be sent from the British Conference to the next General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the United States of America. (2.) That if the Secretary, the Rev. Robert Newton, can reconcile it with his domestic feelings and interests to be their Representative, the Conference do now hereby appoint him; leaving him to judge afterwards whether it will be practicable for him to fulfil this Mission. (3.) That the Rev. Dr. Hannah be appointed to prepare a letter to the General Conference of the United States Connexion, to be presented by Mr. Newton, or otherwise sent, as circumstances shall require.

6. Reading of the Pastoral Address in Society-Meetings. The Superintendents are directed to appoint at each principal Chapel in their Circuits a Special Society-Meeting, to be held either in the afternoon of the Lord's day, or on some convenient evening of the week, for the purpose of having the Pastoral Address read to the Society, and made the subject of suitable remarks and exhortations.

7. In order to bring the state and progress of the work of God in every Circuit distinctly and regularly under the examination of the District-Meetings, copies of the printed Circuit-Schedules, duly filled up, shall be annually produced, read, and considered. The Chairmen of Districts are made responsible for the execution of this order; and shall bring such Circuit-Schedules with them to the Conference, that they may be forthcoming, if called for. (See also Minutes for 1831, Q. xxvi., p. 83.)

8. District-Minutes. The Chairmen of Districts are peremptorily required to procure three complete copies of the Minutes of the several annual and other Meetings of the District Committees, duly signed by the Chairman and Secretary. One of these copies shall be inserted in the District-Records; a second shall be reserved for the use of the Chairman and Secretaries at the Conference; and a third shall be regularly presented to the President, during the first week of each Conference, and preserved, under his direction, as a document appertaining to the Connexion. The several copies of the last class shall be written on foolscap paper, that they may be annually bound together in one volume.

9. The Superintendents of those Circuits in which the Conference may from year to year assemble, shall, with the approbation of the President, (as already required by rule,) complete and print, not later than the 15th day of June in each year, a Plan of the order of preaching in the principal chapels during the session of the Conference; and shall also, on or before the above date, inform every person whom they have appointed to preach in those chapels, of the time and place of such appointment: and, in order that the Plan thus prepared may not be violated, to the disappointment of our friends, and to the great inconvenience of other parties concerned, no Preacher who attends the Conference shall be at liberty to make an engagement to preach in any other Circuit, either on the Sabbath, or on any other day, during the period appointed for the meeting of the Conference, or of its various Preparatory Committees, at the time for which his name shall be inserted on the Conference-Plan.

10. The Chairmen of Districts are enjoined to make particular inquiries at their Annual Meetings in reference to all the points of Discipline specified in the first Article of the Answer to Q. XXVIII, in our Minutes of 1825.

CONFERENCE OF 1840.

Q. XXVII. When and where shall our NEXT CONFERENCE be held?

A. In Brunswick Chapel, Newcastle-upon-Tyne; commencing on Wednesday, July 29th, 1840, at seven A. M.

Signed, in behalf and by order of the CONFERENCE,
 THEOPHILUS LESSEY, PRESIDENT,
 ROBERT NEWTON, SECRETARY.

Liverpool, August 16th, 1839.

N.B. It is particularly requested, that all Letters written to the PRESIDENT or SECRETARY, or other Preachers, whether during the sitting of the Conference, or in the course of the year, on public business of any kind, may be sent post-paid.

The PRESIDENT'S address is, No. 66, Albany-Street, Regent's Park, London; and the SECRETARY'S, Oxford-Place Chapel, Leeds.

N.B. 1. The Secretaries of our several Funds are directed to meet in Newcastle, on Wednesday, July 22d, for the purpose of preparing for the several Committees the accounts of their respective departments.

2. The Rev. John Anderson, sen., and the Rev. Isaac Keeling, our Sub-Secretaries, with the Rev. William Barton, the Journal-Secretary, are directed to attend at the same time, for the purpose of compiling from the District-Minutes various lists, &c., which will facilitate the business of the Committees, and of the subsequent Conference.

3. The Chairmen of Districts are required to bring, or send, in time for the meeting of the Secretaries of our Funds, on Wednesday, July 22d, perfect copies of the District-Minutes, and an account of the Numbers in Society in the several Circuits of their Districts, as taken at the March Visitation in 1840.

4. The amount of the July Collection in each Circuit must be certified by the Superintendent to the Financial Secretary of the District, not later than the fifteenth day of July. The said Secretary must enter such amount in a General Schedule, and send that Schedule to the Secretaries of the Contingent Fund in Newcastle-upon-Tyne, on the Wednesday before the Conference.

LIST OF GENERAL COLLECTIONS AND SUBSCRIPTIONS FOR 1839-40.

The following are the usual and regular Collections which are to be made in all our Circuits during the ensuing year; viz.,—

1. The Private Subscriptions and Public Collections for the Kingswood and Woodhouse-Grove Schools, &c., are to be made in the month of September, 1839; and the amount should be immediately remitted to the Rev. Philip C. Turner, (whose address is, Methodist Chapel, Birmingham,) one of the General Treasurers for the School-Fund, according to the directions given under Q. XII., at p. 101 of these Minutes.

2. The Annual Subscriptions, due January 1st, and occasional Donations for the Wesleyan Theological Institution, are to be solicited in every Circuit in the first or second week of January, 1840; and forthwith remitted to the Treasurer, Thomas Farmer, Esq., at the Wesleyan Institution-House, Hoxton, London.

3. The Private Subscriptions and Public Collections for the General Chapel-Fund are to be made in the month of February, 1840; and the money should be immediately remitted to Thomas Marriott, Esq., and the Rev. Samuel Jackson, the General Treasurers of that Fund, at No. 14, City-Road, London.

4. The Yearly Collection in all the Classes is to be made as usual at the March Visitation, and the money to be paid at the District-Meetings in May.

5. The Private Subscriptions for the Mission-Fund are to be received in all our Circuits, either weekly, monthly, quarterly, or annually, as is most convenient to the Subscribers. The annual Public Collections for that Fund are to be made in all our chapels, and other preaching-places, at the time of the Anniversaries of the several Auxiliary or Branch Societies; or, where no Public Meetings of that kind are held, in the month of May. The money so raised is to be remitted, through the hands of the District-Treasurers, to Thomas Farmer, Esq., and the Rev. John Scott, the General Treasurers, whose address is, No. 77, Hatton-Garden, London.

6. The Private Subscriptions for the Auxiliary Preachers' Fund are to be solicited in the first week of June, 1840, and a list of Subscriptions sent to the Secretary, not later than the 24th of that month. (See Q. xix., A. 3, p. 118 of these Minutes.) The money is to be paid on or before the first day of the Conference to the Financial Secretary of the District, and by him to James Wood, Esq., and the Rev. John Scott, the Treasurers.

7. The Collection in aid of the Contingent Fund, for the support and spread of the Gospel in Great Britain and Ireland, is to be made in all our chapels and preaching-places, not later than the second Sunday in July, 1840, and the money is to be paid, on or before the first day of the Conference, to the Financial Secretary, and by him to the Treasurers of the Contingent Fund, Messrs. Ashton and Cusworth. The amount collected in each Circuit is to be certified by the Superintendent to the Financial Secretary, not later than the third Tuesday in July. (See N.B. 4th., p. 89, in the Minutes of 1830.)

THE ANNUAL ADDRESS
CONFERENCE
THE METHODIST SOCIETIES.

DEARLY BELOVED BRETHREN,

THE circumstances in which we now address you are marked with more than usual interest. A century has passed away since it pleased Almighty God, who can alone revive the decayed life of his church, and give new energy to its ministrations, to raise up that religious community with which it is our happiness to be connected, and to make it the instrument of an extraordinary diffusion of his truth. Blessings countless and inestimable have descended upon us from the Fountain of all good, and have spread themselves in the world around us. It is a consolation to us also to have undoubted evidence that "upon the glory" which the Lord has created among us there is "a defence." We enjoy a degree of harmony and peace beyond what we have commonly known; and we have most encouraging signs of still more extensive prosperity. Our "churches" have "rest:" it is our humble persuasion that they are likewise "edified," and that, "walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the Holy Ghost," they will be "multiplied" above all former precedent. The best feelings of our hearts are in grateful unison with these anticipations; nor is it with sectarian prejudice, but from an unfeigned desire for the progress of vital Christianity, which we trust exists among you, as well as in other sections of the universal church, that we pray, "The Lord God of your fathers make you a thousand times so many more as ye are, and bless you, as he hath promised you!"

Mutual congratulations may be allowably exchanged between us on the present occasion. But it shall rather be our object to seek a practical use of the benefits which we are called to acknowledge, and to avail ourselves of the motives which they suggest to give a new tone to the spirit of Christian piety, already existing in our Societies. The "still small voice" of divine mercy supplies us with comfortable assurances of the presence and blessing of our God: it constrains us to "wrap" our "face" in the "mantle" of humility, and own that he is with us: but it is also full of warning and admonition. It teaches us that "where much is given," "much" will also be "required." We "beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God," to cherish an habitual conviction of the high claims which he advances on all you have, and all you are. Resign yourselves to the constraining power of his most undeserved goodness. He "is the Lord which hath showed us light;" light which gladdens our earthly path, which guides us to heaven, and prepares us for its sublime fruitions: "bind the sacrifice," the sacrifice of your own body, soul, and spirit, O bind it with the "cords" of your renewed covenant engagements, "even unto the horns of the altar."

Gratitude to God for the manifold favours which he has bestowed upon us in every period of our history, and which he now so plentifully pours around us, is a duty which we cannot refrain from urging on your devout attention. Let us "set up" our "Ebenezer," and say, "Hitherto hath the Lord helped us."

Your gratitude ought to be fervent and sincere; for consider "how great things the Lord hath done for you." Has he not marvellously "formed" you as a Christian body to "show forth his praise?" "In time past" ye "were not a people, but are now the people of God:" ye "had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy." Has he not preserved you amidst every kind of external opposition and internal trial? And has he not continued to you, entire and unimpaired, those systems of doctrine and discipline which our venerable predecessors bequeathed to us? How often has he interposed in our behalf! Sometimes he has so turned aside our threatened captivity to schemes of insidious error or factious innovation, that "we were like them that dream." "Then was our mouth filled with laughter, and our tongue with singing." Strangers, and even enemies, said, "The Lord hath done great things for them." We hail and re-echo the sentiment; and at this time especially would we joyfully reply, "The Lord hath done great things for us, whereof we are glad." Happy for us, if our thankful confessions may but bear some faint proportion to our innumerable deliverances and mercies!

But your gratitude ought also to be pure, and unmixed with worldly vanity. On this subject we feel some apprehension. True it is that, in our public offices and services, we strive to ascribe "glory to God alone:" but is there no danger lest, in our free communications with each other, we should inadvertently indulge a temper not strictly in harmony with that deep humility which our Christian profession requires? Connexional, as well as personal, vanity cannot but be offensive in the sight of God, who is jealous of his honour, and who will not give his glory to another. Remember that, rich as our Connexion is in the biography of its Christian worthies, in its ample provisions of truth, and in its wonderful facilities for the propagation of the faith, "all" these "things are of God." Vain confidence in human resources and efforts is a sign of weakness, and a sure cause of decay. "Pride goeth before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall." Guard, then, the expressions of your gratitude. Let it be sacred to the Most High God. Never attribute to human instrumentality in whole or in part what is due only to divine agency. "He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord;"

and, penetrated with a strong sense of what the Father of mercies has wrought in our behalf, let us all cry, "Not unto us, O Lord, not unto us, but unto thy name give glory, for thy mercy, and for thy truth's sake."

Yet again, the testimonies of our gratitude ought to be entirely free from the restraints of a blind and partial prejudice, and from a disposition to disparage or "despise others." The genuine spirit of Methodism is not sectarian. It rejoices in all that is good, wherever that good may exist, and by whatever means it may be promoted. In proportion as it may confine its views, and regard its own operations alone, it will lose its peculiar character and force. The catholic charity of our revered Founder is still the theme of our recollections and praise: let it also be the object of our imitation. Great good exists, by the bounty of our common Father, in other communities of the vast Christian family, as well as in our own; and it is rapidly increasing. We rejoice in what is bestowed upon us. Shall we not also rejoice, with most unaffected satisfaction, in what is bestowed upon others? Shall we not cordially say, even in circumstances which may in other respects be less gratifying, "Notwithstanding every way — Christ is preached; and we therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice?" The prosperity of others shall animate our best hopes, and constrain us to seek a larger participation in the unconfined benefits of our God. "Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel, thou that leadest Joseph like a flock; thou that dwellest between the cherubims, shine forth. Before Ephraim, and Benjamin, and Manasseh," tribes of the same Israel, whose blessings we would celebrate and share, not envy or deny, "stir up thy strength, and come and save us. Turn us again, O God, and cause thy face to shine; and we shall be saved." Assailed we may be, even among the followers of our Divine Master, with misconstruction and unkindness; but these things shall serve only to re-awaken and enhance our fraternal charity; nor shall any thing be permitted, as we humbly hope, to repress or abate the prayer,

“ Grace be with all them that love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity.”

Along with the expressions of your gratitude, we would strenuously and affectionately urge you to a DILIGENT USE OF THE MANIFOLD ADVANTAGES with which you are favoured. On this topic we have only to remind you of what forms the more usual theme of our ministrations among you. We aim not at novelty, but at profit; and we gladly avail ourselves of the opportunity which our present circumstances more especially supply, to enforce what is, in our hearts' just esteem, of the most vital importance to your spiritual interests.

Suffer us particularly to press the necessity of a personal and abiding sense of acceptance with God through faith in the atoning sacrifice of our Lord Jesus Christ. It is a source of most devout thanksgiving to God, that a distinct prominency has always been given, in the ministry of our body, to this unspeakable blessing, and that “so great a cloud of witnesses” has arisen in every part of our history to attest its happy enjoyment. At this moment, how many thousands in our Societies, both at home and abroad, are rejoicing in the divine reality of the Holy Spirit's testimony to the fact of their adoption into the family of God! They believe, and therefore they speak. “Because they are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into their hearts, crying, Abba, Father.” But is there not a danger lest, in other instances, this prime attainment should be neglected, or not sought with sufficient earnestness and faith? Is it universally enjoyed even by those who have perhaps for a series of years been members of our Societies, and partakers of our ordinances? Are there not several now associated with us who never gained the possession of this “pearl of great price?” They are amiable, respectful, observant of our interests, and attentive to our institutions; and why should they stop short of that which would open a spring of peace in their own hearts, and give them a calm evidence of their personal salvation and safety? Are there not others who have lost the sensible enjoyment of this benefit, and whose light is become dim? Yet, apart from its habitual possession, what joyous religion can be felt? what true consistency can be maintained? "The joy of the Lord is our strength." "When he giveth quietness, who then can make trouble? and when he hideth his face, who then can behold him?" When the heart knows not the "quiet" which springs from a manifestation of divine favour, what is there that will not cause it "trouble?" But when it "rests in the Lord," its true centre and home, it has a tranquil repose which all the storms of life shall not be permitted to destroy. Seek, then, the real and abiding enjoyment of this "reconciliation with God;" seek it in self-renouncing faith, and guard it with holy diligence. It is the liberty which the jubilee-trumpet of the Lord's "acceptable year" proclaims to all prisoners and captives. "Blessed is the people that know" its "joyful sound: they shall walk, O Lord, in the light of thy countenance. In thy name shall they rejoice all the day: and in thy righteousness shall they be exalted. For thou art the glory of their strength."

Nor would we neglect to mention the indispensable duty of cultivating all spiritual attainments. You are fully aware that there is a close and inseparable connexion between that sense of acceptance with God of which we have already spoken, and a real change of heart. He who is accepted is, at the same time, regenerated and renewed,—“renewed,” as St. Paul speaks, “in the spirit of his mind.” A new fountain is opened in his inmost soul,—a fountain of purity and peace; a new pulse beats, and new life flows. He feels that it is at once his highest privilege and most sacred obligation to make continual progress in all that is divine and heavenly. We entreat you, beloved brethren, to attend more and more to this inward change, and its blessed fruits. Cultivate the Christian's interior life, and advance daily towards its promised maturity. Disregard not the scriptural admonitions which we would faithfully impress on your hearts and on our own. “Live in the Spirit.” Have ye indeed

“tasted that the Lord is gracious?” We persuade ourselves that most of you have, and that we may “exhort, and testify, that this is the true grace of God wherein ye stand.” “Lay aside,” then, “all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, and all evil-speaking. As new-born babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby.” “Giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue; and to virtue knowledge; and to knowledge temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness; and to godliness brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness charity. For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.” But whatever self-delusion may suggest, and whatever reliance may be fondly placed on past experience, “he that lacketh these things is blind, and cannot see afar off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his old sins. Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence to make your calling and election sure.”

While you walk in the enjoyment of God’s favour, and maintain the virtues of the inward Christian life, you will be prepared to observe exemplary circumspection of conduct. But let your study be sedulously employed on this practical evidence of the Christian’s character. “Let your light shine.” Preserve a uniform consistency in your personal deportment. Be patterns in the several relations of human society which you may be called to sustain. Faithfully attend to all the offices of domestic piety: and, in all your intercourse with others, in things minute or more important, guard the claims of unimpeachable integrity. Value and use the various ordinances of God, as they exist among you; and cautiously abstain from the indulgence of mere formality or outward exertion only in the worship of the Most High. The frequent returns of our divine services, and the excitements which prevail around us, may, by an inadvertent but perilous abuse, lead us to substitute something else in place of spiritual and active godliness. But remember that every thing short of this is of no esteem in the sight of God. “Offer spiritual sacrifices” in all your doings. Add charity to zeal, and to prayer devotion ; and, amidst all your professions and privileges, consider “ what manner of persons ye ought to be in all holy conversation and godliness ; looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God.”

EFFORTS TO EXTEND THE BLESSINGS of which you so largely partake, ought also to be greatly multiplied and increased. And here we might dwell on the Missionary exertions of our body, which are now assuming a character of signal importance, and which especially call for your unwearied co-operations, liberalities, and prayers. We might likewise enlarge on your several local charities, which to be maintained in vigour and efficiency, require the constant exercise of vigilance, judgment, sound principles, and love unfailling. But, while we would not for a moment lose sight of these mighty systems of Christian activity, we feel it to be right at present to place before you a particular subject, which has occupied the serious deliberations of this Conference,—the more effectual training of the rising race by the general establishment of religious Day-schools, in connexion with our different Societies and places of worship.

It is unnecessary to expatiate on the paramount duty of giving children a careful education “ in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.” You acknowledge this duty. You are sensible that, in its essential principles, it is enjoined, on the authority of God himself, under every dispensation which he has granted to mankind ; and you are, as we firmly persuade ourselves, unseduced by the fascinations of that “ vain” and godless “ philosophy” which would discharge religion from the walks of learning, and train the immortal offspring of the human family for time only, but not for eternity. You are convinced that the “ words” which you have been “ commanded” should be “ in your heart,” that you should “ teach them diligently unto your children,” and that you should “ talk of them when you sit in your houses, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise up.” Nor can you forget the many admonitions which have been addressed to us on this subject from the first time of our existence as a Christian community.

But the period appears now to have arrived, when we are impelled by every consideration which can sway our best purposes, to attempt efforts, in this ample province of Christian service, on a far larger scale than any that we have yet adopted. Movements are made in the nation with relation to this object; movements of which, in many respects, we cannot conscientiously and sincerely approve. Facilities too are afforded us, which invite us onward, and encourage us to believe that any temporary difficulties which may arise before us will soon pass away, and cause us no formidable impediment. Opportunities surround us. The trial has, in some cases, been made, and has happily succeeded. Time has been taken for deliberation. All things are now prepared for speedy action.

Are you, brethren, alive to the spiritual interests of our youthful population, particularly among the poor? Do you rejoice in the advantages which have accrued from our Sabbath-school institutions, partial and confined as those advantages have unavoidably been? Then unite with us in this more enlarged "labour of love." Weigh the decisions of the Conference in reference to it with impartiality and care. Think of the unspeakable good which could not fail to spring from the formation of a Day-school, as a nursery to the church, a catechetical seminary of young disciples, in union with every Society, and under the regular inspection of the Christian ministry. Let us have your countenance, concurrence, and prayers; and doubt not that, in these endeavours, as well as in others, "God, even our own God, will give us his blessing.

Above all, we would most earnestly exhort you to unite in a MORE FIRM RELIANCE ON THE HOLY SPIRIT'S PRESENCE AND AGENCY, and in MORE FERVENT PRAYER FOR THE PROMISED EFFUSIONS OF HIS GRACE. Without him our wisest plans are foolish, our most vigorous exertions powerless, and our liveliest hopes unfruitful. He "worketh all in all." He turns the desert into a paradise; he kindles darkness into day, and quickens death itself into "newness of life." Tokens of his unmerited love have attended the proceedings of our community through all the revolutions and changes of one hundred years. He is still with us. The Centenary Meetings which have been held during the past year were, almost without exception, accompanied with a copious baptism of his influence. On a review of our numbers too, we find a total increase in the Societies, under the care of the British Conference, of more than sixteen thousand souls, of which nearly six thousand are on the Mission Stations; besides several thousands who are yet on trial. Surely God has "not cast us away from his presence, nor taken his Holy Spirit from us." But we need his sanctifying gifts in a far larger measure. Let us jointly and devoutly ask for them; let us wait for their bestowment in meek and ardent expectation; and let us rightly use them when they are vouchsafed to us. "The promise" of the gift of the Holy Ghost "is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call." Have faith in God. He "will be as the dew unto Israel." He will "pour water upon him that is thirsty, and floods upon the dry ground;" and will graciously hasten the time when, under the more plentiful showers of his spiritual blessings, "the wilderness shall be a fruitful field, and the fruitful field shall be counted for a forest."

At all our annual meetings we have to mourn over the removal of some who were associated with us in this ministry, and who laboured with zeal and fidelity in the word and doctrine. We review their characters and lives with melancholy but not joyless interest: we feel that we also are swiftly passing away; and we pray that, "when the hour of our rest shall come, we may be found ready." We rejoice, while we mark the departure or decay of our tried and experienced coadjutors, that others are raised up who inherit the same views, and breathe the same spirit; and we trust that it will still please the great "Shepherd and Bishop of souls" to continue among us a succession of "faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also." In the course of the past year, thirty-two of our honoured brethren have "died in the faith;" nineteen in England, seven in Ireland, and six on our Foreign Stations. And, at this Conference, fifty-two young men, who had previously passed through their allotted term of probation, have been admitted, by public ordination, into full ministerial connexion with us. They “witnessed a good confession” to our entire and grateful satisfaction; and they are commended, by our prayers and blessings, for the work to which we believe that God has called them.

For the mercies which we have enjoyed, during the sittings of the Conference, and the religious services connected with them, we would fervently express our thanksgiving to God. He has indeed been in the midst of us, and has delightfully united our hearts together in unanimity and peace. The day which we had set apart for the celebration of the Wesleyan Centenary was eminently crowned with good. We felt that the God of our fathers was still with us,—that he had not left nor forsaken us. It is our confident hope that other days of celebration, which are to be held throughout the Connexion, will abundantly share in the same diffusive benefit, and that they will prove, in no ordinary degree, “seasons of refreshing from the presence of the Lord.” We go forth to the labours appointed to us, at the commencement of another century in our history, with an humble determination to devote ourselves more zealously than ever to God and to our proper work. May we “obtain mercy of the Lord to be faithful!”

And now, brethren, we bid you farewell in the Lord. “Whereunto ye have already attained,—walk by the same rule, and mind the same thing.” Turn a deaf ear to the insinuations of all unscriptural principles, how plausible and seductive soever such insinuations may be; and “meddle not with them that are given to change.” Be ready at all times for every good word and work; and “walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet-smelling savour.” “Build up yourselves on your most holy faith; pray in the Holy Ghost; and keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life.”

And may "the Lord deliver you from every evil work, and preserve you unto his heavenly kingdom; to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen."

THE ANNUAL ADDRESS
OF THE
IRISH CONFERENCE
TO THE
BRITISH CONFERENCE.

VERY DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN,

IT is with great pleasure that we avail ourselves of the opportunity now afforded us of thus addressing you. Engaged as we are through the year in our respective Circuits, frequently amidst discouraging circumstances, it is cheering to us to meet together in our annual Conference, where we feel that as "iron sharpeneth iron, so a man sharpeneth the countenance of his friend." It is no small addition to our consolation and enjoyment to remember that we are not an isolated body, but an integral portion of the great Wesleyan community; and that we are united in Christian and ministerial fellowship with you, the guardians and directors of the operations of that great system of evangelical truth transmitted to us from our revered Founder.

We hail the arrival of this Centenary Year of our Connexional existence with very peculiar emotions; and while we meditate upon the origin, progress, present state, and future prospects of Wesleyan Methodism, we recognise every where the guiding hand, the fostering care, the protecting power, and the enriching blessing of the Most High, and are led with humble and devout gratitude to exclaim, "What hath God wrought!" We reflect on the gross darkness that covered the land; the depth to which the people were sunk either in godless infidelity, or a dead and barren profession of Christianity, when the providence and grace of God raised up, qualified, and sent forth the Wesleys to be instruments of one of the most glorious revivals of pure religion by which the church and the world have ever been blessed. We delight to remember how they, with their first Assistants, men like themselves in faith, hope, love, zeal and self-denying diligence, diffused the light and life of scriptural truth through the extent of this as well as of your land, undaunted by the opposition arrayed against them in the brute violence of furious mobs, the sarcasms of sceptical scoffers, and the sophistical reasonings of mistaken theologians. They laboured and prospered; and we have entered into their labours, and enjoy the benefits of their success. Blessed be God, although those apostolical men have been taken to their reward, the Head of the Church does not disown their successors in the ministry, but still manifests his presence in our Zion. We have not, it is true, lived down opposition; but we have received abundant proofs that if we be faithful to our profession, the arm of omnipotence will uphold us, and make us more than conquerors in the strength of our Lord. Although Wesleyan Methodism may be still in the furnace, yet is she there with garments upon which the smell of the fire has not passed; and dull indeed must be the eye that cannot discern the Son of God walking with her amidst the flame.

We have no doubt that the free-will offerings presented during this year by a generous people will come up before God, acceptable for the sake of our Lord Jesus, and be followed by larger communications of the divine blessing than we have yet experienced. While we contemplate with grateful admiration the munificence of the people of your charge, we have the gratification of seeing our most sanguine expectations exceeded by the contributions of our Societies and friends, many of whom, we, who know their circumstances, can testify have given in a spirit of noble self-sacrificing liberality. The Centenary Meetings in Ireland were seasons of refreshing coming from the presence of the Lord. The excellent and respected Preachers and Lay Gentlemen deputed by your Centenary Committee to visit this country, will long be gratefully remembered by us in connexion with this interesting occasion. Their addresses contributed largely to the diffusion of proper views, and the manifestation of suitable feelings on the subject. For their visit, and for the affectionate regard for the wants of Ireland displayed in the appropriation of the surplus Centenary Fund, we desire to express our warm gratitude; more particularly as these are additional evidences of the place which the welfare of Ireland occupies in the care and sympathies of our English fathers and brethren. These occasions have led us also to cultivate a more intimate acquaintance with the writings of Mr. Wesley; and the more closely we study his works, the more convinced are we of the scriptural correctness of his views of doctrine, and of the beauty and efficiency of his plans of discipline, and the more do we admire his character, and desire to imitate him as his sons in the Gospel.

It is matter of gratitude to Almighty God, that notwithstanding our loss by emigration, and the vigorous and extended opposition with which we have to contend, we are enabled to report some increase in the number of our members. We feel humbled because our progress is not more marked and rapid; yet may we say, "If it had not been the Lord who was on our side when men rose up against us, then they had swallowed us up quick, when their wrath was kindled against us: blessed be the Lord who hath not given us as a prey to their teeth. Our help is in the name of the Lord who made heaven and earth!"

The harmony of our Conference has not been disturbed by any collision of interests, or differences of judgment. We are of one heart and of one mind, determined to preserve inviolate the faith, the morals, and the discipline of Methodism. Much of the peace and profit which we have experienced in our various sittings is owing, under God, to the temper and ability of our highly respected and greatly beloved President, the REV. THOMAS JACKSON, in whose elevation to the chair at this memorable period, we distinctly see the hand of that Providence which has been so conspicuously manifested in the direction of all the leading events in the history of Methodism from its formation to the present day. His expositions of Wesleyan theology and economy will not soon be forgotten ; and his ministrations of the word amongst us, bright with evangelical truth, warm with love of the Saviour and of souls, and largely accompanied with the unction of the Holy One, have deeply impressed us with a sense of the importance and fearful responsibility of our office ; the divine sufficiency we have in the " supply of the Spirit ;" and the necessity there is that we should " take heed to ourselves, and to the flock over which the Holy Ghost hath made us overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood." The REV. GEORGE MARSDEN, the REV. ROBERT NEWTON, and the REV. JOHN BEECHAM, who accompanied the President, were cordially welcomed by us as our long known and well tried friends. We have frequently expressed our respect and affection for them, and they still live high in our esteem and love. Six young brethren, having witnessed a good confession, and given full proof of their call to the ministry, have been received into Full Connexion, and ordained to the sacred office. The service, which was attended by an overflowing congregation, was signally owned of God, as was the President's appropriate and powerful Address on the following evening. Three young men, well reported of, are admitted on trial.

The unusual number of deaths in our body, we receive as a solemn admonition that we should have our " loins girded about, and our lights burning, and be like unto men that wait for their Lord." Seven of our brethren have, during the last year, passed into the invisible world. Five of them were Supernumeraries, four of whom were worn down by slowly rolling years, and were gathered to their fathers at a full age ; the fifth in the prime of life, with an apparently vigorous constitution, and promise of much future usefulness, was broken by sickness in a day, but was enabled to participate in the triumph of those " for whom to live is Christ and to die is gain." The other two were actively engaged in the work ; the Rev. J. Howe, who, though suddenly called away, gave satisfactory evidence of his meetness for the solemn change ; and the Rev. Gideon Ouseley whose praise is in all the churches, and who to the last was "in labours more abundant."

We rejoice to find that the interest in the great Missionary enterprise is increasing in this kingdom, being convinced that in addition to the benefit conferred on the immediate cause of Missions by augmented zeal and effort, we have also an indication of spiritual life and vigour in our own churches, and a ground on which to anticipate the blessing graciously promised on those who water others, and labour to turn many to righteousness. Our Missionary income this year amounts to £4,680, being an increase above last year's receipts of upwards of £200.

The visits of our respected brethren, the REV. MESSRS. GRINDROD, FARRAR, SQUANCE, and SHREWSBURY, the Missionary Deputation to Ireland appointed at your last Conference, and the REV. MR. GEORGE, were cordially and gratefully received, and proved highly profitable to us, and to the funds of the Society. By their public services and private intercourse, by sound arguments in support of the great principles of Christian Missions, and by striking illustrations of their practical results, they produced impressions which we trust will be permanently useful.

Our Irish Missions and Schools have prospered during the year, under the superintendence of the Rev. W. O. Croggon, whose fidelity, vigilance, and well-directed activity have secured for him our universal esteem.

Permit us here to express the gratification with which we contemplate the interest taken by our English brethren in the scriptural education of the rising generation. We do trust that Protestant England will never acquiesce in any educational scheme which would exclude or mutilate that word "which is able to make wise unto salvation, through faith which is in Christ Jesus."

We send to you, as our Representatives, the Rev. Messrs. Stewart, Waugh, and Reilly, brethren whose faithful and judicious attachment to our great cause has long been proved, and to whom we can confidently entrust all our concerns.

And now, very dear Fathers and Brethren, we commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up; and we beseech you to "pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course and be glorified, even as it is with you."

THE ANSWER
OF THE
BRITISH CONFERENCE
TO THE
ADDRESS OF THE IRISH CONFERENCE.

DEARLY BELOVED BRETHREN,

THE receipt of your Address has tended greatly to strengthen our "brotherly love" towards you, as well as to excite in us a deeper interest in the welfare of Ireland. We have received the Rev. Messrs. Stewart, Waugh, and Reilly, not only with Christian esteem, but with fraternal affection, as the Representatives of an interesting because a depressed and afflicted branch of the great Wesleyan family.

We very cordially share, beloved brethren, in your feelings of joy and delight on account of the encouraging displays of the divine goodness in this our Centenary Year. Your account of the interest displayed by the Societies and friends in Ireland on this great occasion, their well-principled attachment to the Connexion, their religious feeling and pious devotedness to God and his cause, which your Centenary Meetings called forth, together with the self-denying liberality manifested, are to us a cause of sincere congratulation, as well as of gratitude to Almighty God. Indeed the whole effect of these Centenary operations, in every part of the Connexion, is of so extraordinary a nature as to exceed all calculation, and indicate most clearly the "hand of the Lord" for good.

The mercy of God in raising up our venerable Founder to originate the system of Methodism; the value and importance of the doctrinal and devotional standards which he prepared; the discipline and economy which he founded in harmony with the holy Scriptures; the evangelical character of the ministry of which he was the Patriarch; the great excellency and usefulness of the Communion which he established on the model of the primitive Church; and above all, the rich displays of experimental religion manifested in the holy lives and triumphant deaths of the great multitude now before the throne of God in heaven,—many of them the beloved relations of the living Methodist family;—were points on which the attention of our people was in every place intensely fixed, and had the effect of stirring them up to that “labour of love” by which they have been so greatly distinguished. These views, so true and accurate in themselves, have, no doubt, been the great springs of that noble liberality which has been displayed on this occasion. However paramount the obligations of our people might be to celebrate this Centenary of Wesleyan Methodism with pious thanksgivings, holy joy, and liberal offerings,—we are persuaded that the call would have been made in vain, had it not been met by a living piety, in some measure commensurate with the duty. Strengthened by confidence in Methodism as a “dispensation of the Gospel,” and “the work of God;” saved themselves by its instrumentality from ignorance, guilt, misery, and partaking of the privileges and grace of the kingdom of our Lord; animated by the love which true piety creates; as well as knowing by facts, with which they were perfectly familiar, the efficiency of this system in extending the triumphs of the Cross through this country and the world; our beloved people have on this occasion manifested an elevation of principle, and a strength of attachment to our cause, which fill us, their Ministers, with devout thanksgivings to God, and encourage our reliance on His goodness respecting the prospects and final issues of our branch of the universal Church.

It will afford you pleasure to be informed, that we have partaken largely, in the business and services of the British Conference, of that religious and hallowing influence which seems to have distinguished your own Conference at Belfast. The numbers attending our present assembly are larger than ever met on a similar occasion; and yet, great unanimity prevails; and, as far as is manifest, a perfect state of purity of affection, and of brotherly love. The Connexion never bore a more healthy or encouraging aspect. The calls for additional Preachers are very numerous, arising out of the growth of the work in all parts of the kingdom. The increase of the Societies is upwards of sixteen thousand; and a greater number of young men have offered themselves for the work of the ministry than was ever known in any former year. The Missionary department of our work is also in delightful progress, both with respect to the zeal and liberality of our friends at home, and the successes of the evangelical labours of the Missionaries abroad. But the crowning glory of the present Conference consists in the religious feeling which prevails, the unction of the Holy Spirit poured out, and the blessing of God which rests on the proceedings of his servants. The devotional and religious services connected with the Centenary Celebration were remarkable times of refreshing from the "presence of the Lord." "Devout men" had assembled from almost every part of our extended Connexion to witness or attest this "wonderful work of God." Joy, mingled with tenderness and tears, appeared to pervade one of the most numerous and respectable congregations that ever met since the establishment of Methodism. A spirit of prayer and faith, which appeared to bring the Saviour near, in the relations of his mercy and power, was given to an assembly which bowed in deep humility before "the throne of the heavenly grace." In this frame of devotion, all hearts seemed to feel the power and enter into the glorious realities of the kingdom of God, to realize the presence of "the spirits of just men made perfect," and to receive a pentecostal baptism of the Holy Spirit. Our beloved brethren the President and Ex-President were greatly assisted in the discharge of their official duties on this auspicious day. The latter, having been previously appointed to this service, was enabled to enter fully into it, to the great edification and delight of all who heard him. In connexion with a comprehensive view of Methodism, as a revival of Apostolical Christianity, he evidently caught the sublimity of his theme; or, rather, it pleased God to animate his servant with 'so high a tone of religious sentiment and joy, as to enable him to throw such a hallowed glow of feeling into the entire service as deeply affected every heart.

We have every reason to hope that the effects of this happy day will remain in an improved state of piety through the entire Connexion. The noble offering of property to the advancement of the work of God, on the part of our beloved people, is a cause of much pleasure and thankfulness to the Conference; but we are persuaded that these gifts must be sanctified "by the word of God and prayer," in order to be permanently beneficial. These effects we confidently hope will ensue. To live more in the spirit of holiness; to cherish the habit of devout prayer; to preach the word with more simplicity, point, and power; to care more sedulously for "the flock over which the Holy Ghost hath made us overseers;" to seek with an increased diligence and zeal the lost souls of men; and to carry out more extensively "the glad tidings" of salvation; seem to be the purpose of every Minister amongst us. We trust, beloved brethren, that Ireland will largely participate in this elevated religious feeling; and that the Centenary Year may become a new epoch of prosperity and triumph in your portion of the Gospel field.

We are aware of the pre-eminent necessity of such a revival of the work of God, to meet the peculiar exigencies and wants of your country. It is our impression that the evils of Ireland originate in moral causes; and if this be the case, nothing but the truth, the grace, the power, and the ordinances of the Gospel can effect their cure. The errors, superstitions, and oppressions of Popery have, we are aware, for many centuries, bewildered the intellect, enslaved the consciences, fascinated the feelings, and corrupted the faith of your noble countrymen. How can a people, deprived of the free use of the Scriptures, educated in false views of religion, enslaved to an oppressive hierarchy, and despoiled of their rights of conscience and private judgment, be otherwise than unhappy, restless, and depraved? Human expedients cannot meet a case of this description. Social misery is only the external form of the evil: the cause of the disease lies deep in the hidden darkness, unsubdued passions, and misdirected conscience of the people. The strength of this evil is greatly augmented by the expedients which are found necessary to exclude the light and resist the grace of that glorious Gospel which shines so resplendently around them. As in ancient times, "the world by wisdom knew not God;" so it is found at present, that human policy cannot remove this state of wretchedness and sin. The darkness and error can only be corrected by that light of truth which the word of God supplies. The impotency and indisposition to virtue and piety, so apparent, can only be relieved by the power and motives which are imparted by the faithful enunciation of the Gospel. The restless misery of the people can only be removed by the grace of God, in the pardon of sin, and the regeneration of the heart; and moral order and happiness, in domestic and social life, can alone be created by the principles, ordinances, and rules of the Divine law. These views, we rejoice to know, begin to be entertained by the Protestant churches of this nation in general, and are the deliberate and unquestioned sentiments of this Conference, and of the whole Wesleyan Connexion.

Entertaining these views, we are aware, beloved brethren, that great and important ministerial obligations rest upon us. And in order to prepare our body for the full and faithful discharge of duties of so high a description, it seems as if Divine Providence had chosen for us, in other and more auspicious times, an area of operation exactly suited to the occasion. By the extraordinary and self-denying labours of the Wesleys and their coadjutors, our Circuits and Societies now pervade the whole of your country. We consequently enjoy the means of "holding forth the word of life," to afford a steady and permanent light; of establishing a system of scriptural education for the children of the poor; of extending our evangelical labours to every hamlet and village; of bearing a universal testimony for God and His truth; of exhibiting the beauty and excellency of a living piety; and by these united agencies, of bringing souls into the faith of Christ,—the only appointed means of securing individual salvation and happiness, and of promoting public virtue and morality. The faithful employment of these advantages, we are persuaded, constitutes the great duty of the entire Methodist Connexion. Whilst to you belongs the glory of cultivating a field so interesting and arduous, it is equally obligatory on us, the British Conference, and the Wesleyan Methodists of this nation, and indeed of the world, to support you, by sympathy, by prayer, by encouraging counsels, by a close and compact union, and by all other means in our power. To this we most devoutly pledge ourselves. Though in some respects you must be isolated in your labours and sufferings, yet you will not be alone. The affection of the whole body will be with you; and any exigencies of danger and suffering to which you may be exposed, in the discharge of your duties, will be met and sustained by the power of the entire community. We refer to these subjects, not with the intention of provoking any parties to wrath; for "as much as lieth in us," it is our desire "to live peaceably with all men:" but we cannot be blind to the circumstances of your country, and of the position in which our Societies stand. Our commission, however, as in the case of all true Ministers, being to "preach the Gospel to every creature," we feel this obligation to be paramount. Difficulties and obstructions may lie in our way; but, animated by the example and successes of our predecessors, and especially by the promises and grace of our Divine Lord, it is our determination to fulfil this command, to the utmost of our ability, by our Connexional exertions. We consider ourselves as raised up to spread scriptural Christianity through the empire, and through the world. If we are providentially permitted to prosecute the work assigned to us in the midst of cheering and encouraging circumstances, it will be to us a cause of great gratitude and joy; but if Providence points out another line of things, we feel the obligation of trusting God for the succours of his holy Spirit, and of still seeking to accomplish his will.

We trust, beloved brethren, that the grants of assistance from the Centenary Committee, towards the erection of a chapel in Dublin, as well as for school and preaching houses in the rural and most destitute parts of your country, under the direction of the Missionary Committee, may have the effect of encouraging your exertions in these several departments of the work of God. In common with yourselves, we feel the great importance of extending amongst you the kindred blessings of a sound scriptural education, with the means of public worship, and the preaching of the word of God. The grants in question, we are aware, are very inadequate to meet the urgency of the case; but it is confidently hoped that they may lay the foundation of local and other exertions, which in the end may provide, if not sufficiently, yet extensively, for the spiritual wants of a necessitous people.

In your island especially, where a system of national education has been established on the Popish principle of excluding the entire Bible, and founding the instruction of the children of the nation on garbled extracts, thus depriving them of a large portion of the truth of God, and practically impressing them with the belief that the Bible is a dangerous book, it is more especially necessary to attempt the establishment of scriptural schools; and consequently becomes the duty of our Connexion to do its utmost to promote this object. We are aware that great discouragements attend all such efforts; yet the maintenance of a right principle, and the accomplishment of good on a limited scale, must be considered as much preferable to the abandonment of the word of God to a national proscription, and the training of the offspring of an entire people, not only in ignorance of its truth, but in a deep-rooted prejudice of its claims. The schools which our Connexion may be able to establish may be few in number, and embrace but a limited portion of the population; yet they will exist as "witnesses" for the truth; be as models for the imitation of others; gradually communicate instruction, and create an enlightened people: and as they will conserve the word of God, so there is every reason to expect that his blessing will, in this, as in other departments of our work, be manifestly vouchsafed. Be this as it may,—for "it is God that giveth the increase,"—it is obviously the duty of Christians, in all matters relating to religion and the word of God, to repudiate the notion of expediency, and meekly, but firmly, to take their stand on the paramount obligations of principle and duty. What is gained by an opposite course? If the great Societies of the Protestant faith, and especially if the inspired word of God, be cut down to the level of Popery, it would be just as useful to abandon the entire country to its claims, as to establish and carry on a system of instruction which could not lead to the illumination, faith, conversion, and moral elevation of the people. The question at issue between the parties who desire the banishment of the Scriptures, as the basis of education, and those who are struggling to secure the use of them, is a question of means to an end, as well as of Christian principle and duty. Churches and communities cannot, any more than individuals, purposely reject portions of the truth of God, for the sake of securing some party and sectarian advantage, and yet enjoy its privileges and grace. The religion of our Divine Lord must be taken as a whole, or it cannot be possessed at all. To separate the moral precepts of the Bible from the peculiar doctrines and provisions of grace, is to leave such moral instruction without a foundation, to give rules without motives, and to present a fair exterior without furnishing the life and power essential to its attainment. The Divine Author of the Christian dispensation has united in one beautiful whole, law and Gospel, duty and grace; and after providing for the salvation of man in the sacrifice of the cross, the mediation of our Lord, and the life-giving influence of the Holy Spirit, he proceeds to raise the structure of Christian holiness, pure morality, and elevated virtue, on this evangelical basis. Let these great doctrines be withdrawn from any system, and although the morals of Christianity may be taught by "extracts," in the words of the inspired writers themselves, yet, in their isolated state, they would be no longer the morals of the New Testament. Mutilations of the Holy Scriptures must invariably take place either to favour some erroneous dogmas, or to support ecclesiastical claims which can have no foundation in these inspired records. This is not only in itself unlawful, but it must fail in the accomplishment of any purpose, save the propagation of error, and the perpetuation of an anti-Christian hierarchy. It follows that no truly Christian end can be answered by the countenance of a mutilated Gospel. The blessing of God cannot be expected; the faith of the people cannot be Christian and saving, because it is made to rest on a partial view of the truth; Christian morals cannot be secured, in consequence of the abandonment of the true rule, and the only principle and support, of obedience; and the great purposes of the establishment of the church of God on earth cannot be attained whilst its only foundation is abandoned, its services and ordinances are perverted, its spiritual character is renounced, and the allegiance of its professed disciples transferred from Christ to another and a rival head.

It follows from this, that the objects sought by any branch of the true church of Christ can only be secured by the means appointed by himself. The Conference, in perfect agreement with your well-known opinions and practice, dwells the more largely on this subject, as a justification of its own proceedings in supporting you in the establishment of scriptural schools; and in giving utterance to the desire for them, and, as far as means will allow, pledging itself to the support of your local exertions to attain this object on a more extended scale. If we may take upon ourselves the freedom of advice, we might suggest to the whole Irish Connexion the vast importance of keeping its attention steadily fixed on this great and essential point. School-houses, with a resident Master, in which the Holy Scriptures shall be daily taught,—which houses may also be employed as preaching-places in the regular course of your itinerant ministry,—we are persuaded would greatly facilitate the spread of true religion through your country. No doubt many private gentlemen would aid such a design by grants of land for the erection of such buildings, as well as by donations and subscriptions, if a regular plan could be organized for such a purpose; thus giving them some security that the benefits of their respective neighbourhoods should be permanently secured. Whether the formation of a separate Society to promote scriptural education through the whole extent of your Connexion, as well as in the Missionary department, is either desirable or practicable, is a question on which we do not venture to pronounce a positive opinion; but it is obviously a subject which, in the present state of Ireland, demands the best consideration of both Conferences. The information furnished by yourselves at different periods, as well as other sources to which we have access, lead us to the conclusion, that your general work is greatly impeded, as well as the rising generation left in a state of darkness and superstition, through the want of permanent preaching-places, such as the school-houses we contemplate would become.

Your present Address, like those of many preceding years, complains of the evils of emigration: we most seriously sympathize with you, and our people in general, on account of this affliction. We see no remedy for this Wesleyan, and indeed national, loss, but in the permanent establishment of Schools and places of worship, the more extended preaching of the Gospel, the creation of a more elevated moral feeling, and the enjoyment of that security which the suppression of vice, as well as the administration of law, produces. Under God, the Irish Christians, and our own people among the rest, prevent the necessity of emigration, so far as it originates in the hostile power of Popery, by the creation of a counter-acting moral force, under which they shall enjoy real religious liberty, their unmolested rights as British subjects, and be led to adopt habits of industry, and reap in peaceful security the fruits of their labours.

Hence the abstraction of such numbers annually from the Societies by emigration, is constantly impeding the exertions, and blighting the hopes, of the best friends of your country. The living support and influence of an enlightened, zealous, and patriotic people, must be essential to raise your branch of the Connexion into a state of commanding and efficient prosperity. The establishment of means is indeed of great importance; but this cannot of itself be sufficient to produce any great result, without the united, faithful, and determined support of those who are brought to a saving knowledge of the truth. Of such our blessed Lord remarked, "Ye are the light of the world;" "Ye are the salt of the earth." The concentration of the energies of the converts to Methodism must consequently be sought, as well as the augmentation of the means of grace, in order to secure those great benefits which give an economy so efficient and extended as we have a right to expect. It must not be forgotten, in forming an estimate of the value and importance of believers in Christ, as such, in extending the triumphs of the Gospel, and producing a salutary impression on society, that they are in possession of more than human means. Their faith, love, holiness, and power with God in prayer, give them a vast ascendancy over others as agents for good. The steady, firm, uncompromising, but meek and humble testimony of such a people, through Ireland, coupled with the institutions they will have the means of originating, must in the end lead to the extension of the work of God itself, and produce a greatly ameliorated state of society. The deep interest we feel in your personal happiness and usefulness, beloved brethren, our anxiety for the good of our Societies and the efficiency of our system, as well as fervent desires and prayers for the happiness and salvation of your country, must be our apology for entering into these great practical questions. In these times Popery is evidently concentrating all her forces, for the purpose of regaining her lost dominion through the world; and as Ireland appears to be destined to become the field of this ardent conflict of principle, and as, by a providential arrangement, you, our brother Ministers, and the Societies under your pastoral charge, whom we delight in acknowledging as our brethren in Christ, are placed in the midst of this state of things; we could not allow the present opportunity to pass without developing our views regarding your country, pledging ourselves to your vindication and support, offering to you our fraternal affection, and prayerfully commending you to the grace of God, that you may receive that divine guidance and support which your situation makes so pre-eminently necessary.

In conclusion, we assure you of our deep and tender sympathy in the removal of so great a number of your brethren in the ministry during the past year. In the death of so many aged, venerated, and useful men, it may appear somewhat invidious to single out any individual as an object of particular remark; and yet the British Conference cannot help expressing its gratitude to Almighty God for the "great grace" manifested in the venerable Gideon Ouseley. The depth and fervour of his piety, the extent and variety of his ministerial gifts, the uncompromising integrity, firmness, and courage, which he so undeviatingly displayed; the acuteness, learning, and fidelity with which he vindicated the Protestant faith in the midst of the errors, superstitions, and scoffs of Popery; and, above all, his long, indefatigable, self-denying labours, as an Irish Missionary; are excellencies which entitled him to the admiration of his contemporaries, as they exhibit him as a bright example to all succeeding ages of the church. Were it not that "the residue of the Spirit is with the Lord," the departure of so many of our beloved fathers and brethren might fill us with dismay for the interests of Zion: but whilst we mourn their loss, it is to us a cause of great rejoicing that the great Head of the Church appears to be "baptizing" others in the "place of the dead," and eminently fitting them for the discharge of the ministerial office.

We have appointed our honoured and beloved President and Secretary to attend your next Annual Conference. They have our grateful confidence; and they will, as we are fully assured, be received by you with your wonted affection. You have long been accustomed to "esteem them highly in love for their work's sake." It is our prayer that an especial blessing may crown this their intended visit to your country; and that all grace may ever abound towards you, and the people of your charge.

THE ADDRESS OF THE
CANADIAN CONFERENCE
PRESIDENT AND MEMBERS OF THE BRITISH WESLEYAN CONFERENCE.

REV. FATHERS AND BRETHERN,

WE thankfully acknowledge by the hands of our respected friend, the Rev. Robert Alder, the receipt of your parental Address, dated Bristol, August, 1838.

We are grateful for the interest you express in the settlement of our Chapel property, although that question is unfortunately still undecided; and for your counsels and admonitions.

The last, as well as the preceding year, has been a season of excitement and trial in this country; but we are happy to say, that the members of our Church have sustained their long-established character for loyalty, and have been prompt in their response to every call of civil and military duty.

We rejoice that the present aspect of our public affairs is more peaceful and encouraging; and that there is now solid ground to hope for future peace and prosperity in this important portion of Her Majesty's North American dominions.

The circumstances of this Province, during the past year, have been as unfavourable to the spiritual prosperity of our Societies, as to the general interests of the country. Emigration from the Province has been considerable, in consequence of which we have sustained a numerical loss of about one hundred, although very considerable accessions have taken place in many of the Circuits from actual conversions. We are happy, however, to add, that there has been an increase in our Missionary collections during the year, and all our Connexional Funds; and never were our Societies, as a whole, more established and united than at the present time.

We have much satisfaction in again repeating the expression of our high sense of the labours of our esteemed and excellent friend and brother, the Rev. Joseph Stinson, in his offices as President of the Conference, and Superintendent of Missions during the past year; and we beg to record our estimate of his judgment, talents, and worth, by requesting his appointment to those important offices during the ensuing year.

Our Academy, during the year, has continued in a state of increasing efficiency and success; and has acquired a high and influential character in the public estimation, under the management of the highly-gifted Principal, the Rev. Matthew Richey, A.M.

During the present session we have been favoured with the presence and counsels of our pious and valued friend and brother, the Rev. Mr. Lusher, of Montreal; and not a little have we been profited and gratified by the presence and ministrations of your Representative, the Rev. Robert Alder, one of the general Secretaries of your Missionary Society; in whom we recognise an old and honoured friend, and by whose various communications, we have been much delighted and edified. The several subjects which Mr. Alder has brought under our consideration for adjustment, will, doubtless, be communicated to you by him; and we need scarcely add, that we shall be happy to receive him in any relation to which you may think proper to appoint him.

We have read with great satisfaction of your Preparatory Meetings for the Centenary celebration of Wesleyan Methodism. We are making preparations to imitate, in some humble degree, your example, and to participate with you in the interesting and important services and efforts of that eventful celebration.

After a laborious and harmonious session, we return to our several fields of labour, resolved to devote ourselves, in humble dependence upon Him whose we are, without whose blessing nothing is wise, or good, or strong, to our one and great work of spreading scriptural holiness over the land.

THE ANSWER
OF THE
BRITISH CONFERENCE

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE UPPER CANADA CONFERENCE.

VERY DEAR BRETHREN,

THE Address which we have just received from you affords us no small degree of satisfaction and encouragement. We are especially gratified with the evidence which it supplies of your continued attachment to the principles of sound Christian faith and loyalty, in spite of the public agitations and perplexities through which you have lately passed; nor can we disregard the assurances which it also conveys of your hearty concurrence in the adoption of any such plans and exertions as may, by the blessing of Almighty God, most effectually promote the interests of that sacred cause to which we are mutually pledged.

Sincerely do we sympathize with you in the peculiar trials and dangers to which you are still exposed, though the rage of a late mischievous insurrection in your country is for the present happily repressed. But we cannot allow ourselves to doubt that, if you abide firm and faithful to the truths and professions which have prevailed among us from the beginning, you will be assisted by the providence and grace of God to surmount all opposition, from whatever quarter that opposition may arise, and to maintain your proper place as a lively and prosperous part of Christ's universal church. Forget not that, in all the difficulties and emergencies which may arise, "the Lord your God will be with you, while you are with him."

It is consolatory to us to be informed, that the members of your Church have hitherto preserved their character as dutiful and obedient subjects, and that they have been awake to every call which has been made upon them in the hour of need. We trust that nothing, either from within or from without, will ever rob them of this honourable praise. True politics are based on true religion. They draw their maxims from its doctrines and precepts, and their spirit from its influence. It is an inspired maxim, that "righteousness exalteth a nation;" nor will that maxim ever falsify its meaning, or lose its force.

Your comparative decrease of numbers can scarcely occasion us surprise, when we reflect on the revolutions by which you have been shaken, the unavoidable removal of many from your Societies by emigration and otherwise, and the interruption which your religious services have sometimes suffered. It is our persuasion, however, that this season of apparent want of growth and enlargement will not, in the final issue, be the most adverse one in your history. Times of painful exercise and loss are times also of discipline, instruction, and improvement. Right principles should then become more firmly seated, and Christian experience more matured; while preparations are also silently made, amidst what seems a wintry dearth and desolation, for the reviving influences of spring, whose return may be assuredly expected, when all shall flourish in new beauty, and yield the promise of a plentiful harvest.

Our wishes coincide with yours, that the Academy which you have established, and placed under the care of so competent a person as the Rev. Matthew Richey, may, in all respects, prove a blessing to you and the country at large. Solid learning will always, as we devoutly hope, be associated in that Seminary with the soundest principles of religion and loyalty: for these will, beyond all controversy, contribute far more than anything which human policy or philosophy might affect to substitute in their place, to the security and happiness of your rising community.

We are pleased to hear that our esteemed brother, the Rev. Joseph Stinson, has so faithfully discharged his duties, and has, on grounds so just and commendable, endeared himself to your grateful affections. In accordance with your request, we have re-appointed him to the office which he has so well sustained during the past year.

The Rev. Robert Alder, our honoured brother, has our entire and undoubting confidence. We are glad to find, as we had fully anticipated, that he more and more enjoys your cordial esteem; and we assure ourselves that his present visit to you will, with the gracious assistance of God's Holy Spirit, be attended with extensive and permanent good.

May the blessing of God rest upon you, and all who are confided to your care, in far larger measures than any that you have yet experienced; and may you joyfully prove, in the pilgrimage of time, and the rest of eternity, that "the fruit of righteousness is peace, and the effect of righteousness quietness and assurance for ever."

Signed in behalf and by order of the Conference,

DOCUMENTS REFERRED TO IN THE PRECEDING MINUTES.

- I. RELATING TO THE PROPOSED REGULAR PROVISION FOR SUPERNUMERARY PREACHERS AND WIDOWS; AND CONTAINING THE PLAN, NOW SANCTIONED BY THE DISTRICT-MEETINGS AND BY THE CONFERENCE, FOR THE SUPERNUMERARY PREACHERS' AND WIDOWS' NEW AUXILIARY FUND.

FROM various circumstances which have occurred during the last twelve months, it would appear that the exact situation of Ministers in the Wesleyan Connexion, when worn out with service, or obliged to retire from the regular work of the ministry through loss of health, and of the Widows and Orphan Children of deceased Preachers, when bereaved by death of their husbands and parents, has not till lately been well understood by the body of Wesleyan Methodists and their friends at large, nor indeed by any considerable number of that body. It was not generally known that there is no Fund, at present, raised by the contributions of the members of our Societies and Congregations, upon which these persons have any claim, and from which they may receive, as matter of course, some stated allowance when they are cut off from every Circuit-fund in the Connexion. In this respect the situation of a Methodist Minister is peculiar and trying. He may have journeyed, and preached, and worn himself out in strenuous endeavours to promote the temporal, the spiritual, and the eternal welfare of the people to whose service he devotes his life, never in any place receiving more pecuniary remuneration for his labours than is sufficient for the present respectable and comfortable maintenance of himself and his family; and then, as soon as the Conference declares him no longer competent to the labours of a Circuit, and places him in the class of Supernumerary Preachers, he has to begin the world; he has not so much as a habitation to shelter him from the wind and rain; his people have made no provision for his subsistence; and all that he can claim, from any Fund provided by the Connexion, is Twenty or at most Thirty Pounds, towards furnishing the house to which he retires, with a worn-out or broken constitution, to suffer and to die. (The only exception is, the very limited assistance afforded from what is now usually termed the Auxiliary Fund, to a small class of the most aged Supernumeraries.) A Preacher's Widow is in a still more destitute condition. She has no more claim upon any Connexional Fund than a Preacher has; and when her husband dies, and she has to provide a residence for herself and family, she is not allowed the smallest sum towards procuring furniture for her future habitation. There is a Preachers' Annuitant Society, to which each Preacher, while in the work, subscribes Six Guineas annually, besides paying a considerable Premium for admission, and to which a considerate friend occasionally presents a donation, or leaves a bequest,—but to which the Societies and Congregations, as such, contribute nothing: from this Fund the retiring Preacher and the Widow receive their sole claimable support. The annuities, however, paid by that Society are so small as to be altogether inadequate to the maintenance of the persons depending upon them, inasmuch as some claimants receive only Ten Pounds a year, though the Preacher may have travelled in the Connexion upwards of eleven years, and may have a wife and several children to support; and no sum paid from that Fund amounts to more than Forty-Two Pounds a year, though the Preacher when he retires may have travelled forty years, or any number beyond forty. The evident insufficiency of this income led to the institution of the Fund to which reference has just been made, namely, the Preachers' Auxiliary Fund, designed to aid the Preachers' Annuitant Society. To this Auxiliary Fund, raised annually by the private subscriptions of a few members of our Society and other friends, appeal may be made by a Supernumerary Preacher or by a Widow, and then the Committee may vote a grant to assist the income received from the Annuitant Society. It may be sufficient here to say, in praise of this Fund, and in thankful acknowledgment to the subscribers, that it has saved many Supernumerary Preachers and Widows from perishing through want, which they must have done, especially if they had families, had they received nothing beyond their income from the Annuitant Society's Fund; and if the amount annually subscribed had been sufficient, with the annuities, to make the last days of Worn-out Preachers and Widows comfortable, though the sums were paid, not as matter of course, but of favour,—not as an act of justice for years of labour, perhaps of suffering, in the church of God, but of charity,—however objectionable the manner of ministering the assistance, less necessity would have existed for any change of system. But the Fund has ever been so insufficient as a supply for the urgent demands made upon it, that the utmost discrimination has been necessary in making the grants; this again has made it necessary to inquire into the private affairs of the applicants; and so searching and painful, however kindly conducted, has been the inquiry, that few persons would apply for relief, unless compelled by an imperious necessity. And when the Committee have sifted the cases most thoroughly, to ascertain the comparative amount of distress, and have distributed the sum placed at their disposal with the strictest equity, the cases are seldom relieved to the extent of one half, often not one quarter, of the amount which can be deemed either desirable or just.

This defect in the financial system of Methodism has been long observed by several friends, and very deeply deplored; and besides contributing liberally to the Auxiliary Fund, they have from time to time expressed an earnest desire that the Connexion would make some stated provision for its Ministers when they can labour no longer, and for their Widows when it pleases God to remove them by death; but the difficulty was to bring the subject fully before the whole Methodist community. An opportunity offered of conferring with a number of influential friends, from almost every part of the kingdom, when the Committees of the several Funds met in Bristol, previous to the last Conference; and, at the meeting of a very large Committee, appointed to consider in what way the Centenary of the formation of the Wesleyan Methodist Society should be celebrated, James Wood, Esq., of Bristol, brought it forward, and with great ability placed it in its just light before the gentlemen then present. The greatest interest was felt whilst the subject was under discussion; and the result was, the unanimous adoption of the following Resolution:—

“ That this Committee earnestly recommends to the immediate consideration of the Connexion the case of our Worn-out Ministers, and that of the Widows of our deceased Ministers. The Committee respectfully suggest the propriety and necessity of some further provision for their support, upon the principle of the Children’s Fund; and would be particularly gratified, if such an arrangement could be effected, and provision made for its future practical operation, during the coming Centenary Year; believing that it would be, in connexion with other modes of celebrating that occasion, an eminently fitting and beneficial testimonial of the gratitude of the Connexion to those of its Ministers who are no longer capable of regular and constant labours, and of its pious care for the Widows of those Preachers who are gone to their reward.”

When the Centenary Committee assembled in Manchester in November last, this Resolution received the most attentive and anxious consideration; and it was felt as strongly as it was at Bristol, and if possible more strongly, that the Preachers should not be left, in old age and affliction, to the small provision from their own Annuitant Fund, and to a Fund of charity which can merely palliate a few cases of more grievous destitution; “ but that they should receive some regular and stated help from the people to whom they have ministered, as a just return for services actually rendered,” the Auxiliary Fund being made “ available, not only for special help in a few cases of peculiar necessity, but for a fair and moderate addition to the means of comfortable support, in every case where such support has been earned by service, and where the parties themselves think it right to claim it." That Meeting came to Resolutions from which the following paragraph is extracted:—"It is unanimously agreed, that an arrangement for a regular and permanent provision for the better support of our Ministers, when placed, through age or infirmity, on the Supernumerary list, and also for the Widows of deceased Preachers, should be made at the very next Conference, by an adequate increase of the Auxiliary Preachers' Fund, on the fair and equitable principle already so beneficially exemplified in respect to the Children's Fund; and the Meeting most earnestly recommends that the Preachers and Circuit-Stewards should express, at the next District-Meetings, in May, 1839, according to our established rule in such cases, their cheerful approbation of such an arrangement, and their readiness to carry it into effect forthwith in their respective Circuits."

Since then, at the several Centenary Meetings which have been held in every part of the country, this contemplated provision, when publicly mentioned, has met with the most unanimous and hearty response; several Quarterly-Meetings also have passed Resolutions expressive of their conviction that this measure ought to be carried, and of their willingness to contribute their full proportion of the means which may be required for the attainment of so desirable an object. In consequence of these strong expressions of opinion and feeling, a Sub-Committee has since met to digest a Plan which might be submitted to the ensuing District-Meetings; by whom, it is hoped, this long-wanted provision will be agreed to, and recommended to the adoption of the Conference. That Plan is as follows. It has received the unanimous approbation of the General Centenary Committee, to whom it was first communicated, at their Meeting in February last.

PLAN.

I. After very long and careful deliberation, it appeared to the Sub-Committee that the future allowances from the proposed New and Enlarged Auxiliary Fund should have respect, with some reasonable modifications, to the Scale already adopted by the Preachers for their own Annuitant Society; and that in conformity with the plan established by that Institution, the Annuitants should be divided into Seven Classes, such classes being arranged according to the number of years spent in the service of the Connexion by each Preacher, to whom, or to whose Widow, while she continues such, the additional Annuity is granted from the Fund which it is now proposed to create by the contributions of our Societies and Friends. The Scale finally adopted as fair and considerate, taking into account the claims of the several classes on other Funds, and various other circumstances, is the following:—

1. SUPERNUMERARY PREACHERS.

	Proposed Annuity to each.
1st Class: Preachers who have travelled 39 years and upwards	£50
2d Class: Do. Do. from 34 to 39 years.....	£45
3d Class: Do. Do. from 29 to 34 years.....	£40
4th Class: Do. Do. from 24 to 29 years.....	£35
5th Class: Do. Do. from 18 to 24 years.....	£25
6th Class: Do. Do. from 12 to 18 years.....	£20
7th Class: Do. Do. under 12 years.....	£15

2. WIDOWS

1st Class,	{ Whose Husbands travelled for various terms of years, according to the Classes in which they are entered,—the classification of Widows being regulated according to the same Scale as that above specified in the case of Supernumeraries.	£18
2d Class,		£15
3d Class,		£15
4th Class,		£15
5th Class,		£15
6th Class,		£12
7th Class,		£10

According to this Classification and Scale, there are now 174 Supernumeraries, and 176 Widows, making 350 persons in the aggregate, whose Annuities, rated surely at sums which no just or benevolent person can possibly deem too high, or more than a Religious Connexion like ours justly owes to its Worn-out Ministers and their Widows, will require annually the sum of £9,317.

II. To provide the usual small allowance towards

Furniture for Preachers on their retiring from the Itinerancy, being only £30 to each;—and to provide in future a like sum of £30 towards Furniture for each Widow; (which on every principle ought always to have been deemed at least equally right and necessary in the case of Widows as of retiring Preachers, though hitherto strangely neglected;)—will require, taking the annual average number of Preachers so retiring, and of Widows needing Furniture, to be 29, at £30 each, a further sum of £870 per annum.

III. To these sums must be added the usual Education Allowance, from the age of 8 to 14, for 71 Daughters of Supernumeraries and Widows at 8 Guineas each, and of 19 sons of Supernumeraries and Widows, from the age of 8 to 14, at £12 each; and the sum of £250 usually granted for the Education of Children of Supernumeraries and Widows in Ireland; making together, for Education of Orphans, the sum of £1,074. 8s.

IV. Further sums must be provided,—partly to enable the Committee of the New Auxiliary Fund to meet, by small annual and discretionary Grants, various cases of Special and Extraordinary Affliction or Distress, which will from time to time arise, (especially in the case of those Supernumeraries and Widows who belong to the classes which can claim only the lowest Annuities,)—and partly to meet Miscellaneous Annual Expenses for Printing, &c. The average sum estimated as requisite to be reserved for those purposes is £850 per annum.

V. These various items of Expenditure, taken collectively, amount to £12,111. 8s.; a sum which may at first seem large, when viewed in the aggregate, but cannot by thoughtful persons be deemed excessive, when analyzed and distributed among so many Supernumeraries, Widows, and Orphans; nor is it so large as to be beyond the means of easy attainment, when it is considered that our Societies alone, in Great Britain and Ireland, (to say nothing of other friends who may feel it a duty and privilege to help in this case,) numbered at the last Conference 323,045 Members.

VI. The Ways and Means of raising the sum thus ascertained to be requisite, for the great work of Justice and Benevolence now contemplated, were next brought under the consideration of the Sub-Committee.

Several very excellent Friends were at one time disposed to think that this better provision for Worn-out Preachers, Widows, &c., might be, and ought to be, accomplished by means of a very large Appropriation, once for all, from the Centenary Fund. But they were soon convinced that this opinion was altogether fallacious. The provision required is an annual and perpetual one. To have set apart and funded a sum sufficient for the purpose of securing a provision of such amount, would have required that all, and more than all, which the Centenary Fund has even now raised, munificent and noble as that effort has been, should have been devoted to, and absorbed by, this one object, to the total neglect of all our other Connexional obligations and institutions. To this the Preachers themselves would have felt insuperable objections. And, on consideration, the numerous Friends assembled in the Centenary Committees were unanimously of opinion that it is in itself much more just and fitting, that the Provision to be made for the Supernumeraries and Widows of the Connexion should come from the living church, to which the services of the Preachers are from year to year devoted, by an annual contribution, rather than be raised, even if such a plan had been practicable, by one great exertion made only by the present race and generation of Methodists. The Sub-Committee therefore resolved to adhere to "the principle of the Children's Fund," recommended by the Bristol Committee and Conference, as the model according to which, mainly and substantially, the supplies for the New Auxiliary Fund should be procured. The distinguishing feature of the Children's Fund, as far as the analogy is applicable to the present case, is this: That each individual Circuit should be held responsible for raising within itself its fair Quota of the whole sum annually required, in proportion to its number of Members in Society from year to year. Applying this principle, it was at first supposed that a contribution of only Fourpence per annum from each Member, on the average, would, with some other available resources, meet the case for the present. This calculation, however, was hastily made, in the absence of the Documents necessary to obtain an accurate result; and on examination it was found that the average contribution from each Circuit must be at least Sixpence per annum from every Member. This, reckoned on the number of Members as returned at the Conference of 1838, will raise the sum of £8,076 15s., towards the required amount of £12,111. 8s.; leaving an annual Deficit of £4,034. 13s. To supply that Deficit, for the present, it will be indispensable that the Private Subscriptions of our more affluent friends, who have hitherto kindly contributed their support to the Old Auxiliary Fund, in the months of June and July, should be, at least for a few years, generously continued, and applied to the enlarged objects and purposes of the New Auxiliary Fund, with which, of course, the Old Auxiliary Fund will be consolidated and identified. Those Private Subscriptions in Great Britain and Ireland may, it is hoped, be fairly estimated at a sum which will, with the General Contribution from the Members of Sixpence each per annum, be quite sufficient to cover the whole demand.—When the time shall arrive, at which, by the blessing of God, the numbers in our Societies shall be greatly increased, it may possibly be found practicable to dispense with the Private Subscriptions. This would greatly simplify the whole of our financial economy in this department, and is a result to be much desired. The result would indeed be accelerated, if it should be found that, on the average of Members and of Circuits, the General Contribution should in a few years produce considerably more than the proposed minimum of Sixpence per Member. In the mean time, the liberal Private Subscriptions and occasional Donations of our more affluent Friends will be indispensable to the success of the present Plan.

VII. With respect to the mode of raising the New

General Contribution, before explained, after careful consideration, the Sub-Committee propose as follows:—

1. Each Circuit is to be responsible to the Treasurers of the Auxiliary Fund for a sum equal to Sixpence per Member: taking the Numbers for the Circuit in all cases as returned to, and published in the Minutes of, the preceding Conference.

2. In order to raise this Quota, a distinct and special appeal shall be made annually, in every Class-Meeting without exception, to the justice and good feeling of our people. The times of making such appeal shall be, uniformly and in all cases, (in order to avoid injurious interference with other applications,) that of the first and second Class-Meetings in the month of January of each year. Each Leader shall be furnished with a brief printed statement of the case of the Supernumeraries, Widows, and Orphans, which he shall read to the Members of his Class at each of the two Meetings specified. He shall then request their voluntary contributions, according to their respective means and circumstances, in aid of the object contemplated; and shall receive and enter in a separate Book, properly ruled for such Entries, to be entrusted to his care for that specific purpose, any sum, be it small or large, which they may be disposed to give. It is hoped that scarcely any of the Classes will fall below the average minimum of Sixpence per Member; and that many of them, especially in the larger Societies, will considerably exceed it.

3. In every Circuit, at the Christmas Quarterly-Meeting, a Circuit-Treasurer for the Auxiliary Fund shall be appointed, whose office it shall be,

(1.) To meet the Class-Leaders in the last week of January, in order to receive and enter the sums which they shall severally have received from their Members in the earlier part of that month.

(2.) To see, or send to, those Leaders who cannot attend the Meeting, for the same purpose.

(3.) To confer with the Preachers and Friends of the Circuit, if it should happen in any case that the amount received in the Classes should fall below the Quota chargeable on the Circuit, on the best method of making up that Quota by any other means.

(4.) To remit the Circuit Quota to a District-Treasurer for the Auxiliary Fund, as is the case in reference to the Children's Fund, or else to remit it directly to the General Treasurer, as may hereafter be determined, in the month of February at latest.

The Sub-Committee cannot but think, that if this Plan be kindly, faithfully, and uniformly executed, the anticipated sum will be easily raised, in almost every Circuit, by the willing zeal and liberality of our Members, without burdening or injuring the Circuit Funds. Surely every Member will feel it a duty and a privilege to testify his love for the Gospel and its Ministers by the donation, in the way of a Christian's New-Year's Gift, to a Fund whose claims are so righteous and irresistible, when those claims are explained and affectionately recommended.

VIII. It appeared to the Sub-Committee, that in order to afford sufficient time for maturing the Plan, and carrying it into uniform and simultaneous operation,—as well as to avoid possible interference with the collection of the noble Subscriptions already promised to the Centenary Fund,—the actual commencement of the Contribution in the Classes shall not be generally obligatory on the Circuits till the month of January, 1841, when all due preparations shall have been made. But, in order that the benefits of the Plan may be realized, even in 1840, by then beginning to act upon the New Scale of Grants to Annuitants, the Centenary Committee of Appropriation unanimously voted from their Fund the liberal sum of £9,000, which, with the Private Subscriptions, will provide the additional outlay for the year 1840.

THE PRESIDENT of the Conference in the Chair.

I. Moved by the REV. GEORGE MARSDEN, and seconded by FRANCIS RIGGALL, ESQ.,

“That the Committee, on hearing the statement of the General Treasurer, that the amount of contributions to the Centenary Fund exceeds £200,000, and that instalments to the amount of £80,000 have been actually paid up, desire to express their unfeigned thanksgivings to Almighty God for this remarkable manifestation of the Spirit of pious liberality; and that, even in times of great commercial depression and difficulty, His people have offered so willingly after this sort, in order to further those great objects which are contemplated by the Centenary Fund.”

II. Moved by THOMAS FARMER, ESQ., and seconded by THOMAS MARRIOTT, ESQ.,

“That the Committee hereby adopt the proposition of the General Sub-Committee, to divide the amount already paid up, among the various objects of this Fund to the amount of one half of the sums originally appropriated, according to the following scale:—

1. For the purposes of the Theological Institution .....	27,500
2. For the Wesleyan Centenary Buildings, and to the Wesleyan Missionary Society .....	25,000
3. For the Relief of Distressed Chapels ..	18,500
4. For the better Support of Worn-out Preachers and their Widows .....	8,100

5. Towards the Erection of a Centenary Monumental Chapel in Dublin . . . . .	2,500
6. To the Wesleyan Education Committee	2,500."

III. Moved by JAMES WOOD, Esq., and seconded by the REV. THOMAS WAUGH,

"That the same pro rata principle be applied in the distribution of any sums which may be received in future, under the direction of the Sub-Committee."

IV. Moved by the REV. ROBERT NEWTON, and seconded by GEORGE R. CHAPPELL, Esq.,

"That out of the Public Collections, to be made in October next, in 'all our Congregations and Societies, at home and abroad,' a sum not exceeding one half of the total amount may be applied, by each Society, to those local purposes contemplated in the Minutes of Conference, especially for enabling the children of our Sunday and other Charity Schools, and also the poor members of our Societies, to participate in the pleasure and benefit of the intended Celebration, on the day, or on one of the days, to be set apart for that purpose."

V. Moved by GEORGE R. CHAPPELL, Esq., and seconded by JOHN R. KAY, Esq.,

"That it be recommended to the several Local Committees, out of the moiety thus placed at their disposal, to provide a copy of the Centenary Volume for every Wesleyan Sunday-School and other Wesleyan Library in the Circuit; and, wherever practicable and advisable, to present a copy of the Volume to every Local Preacher and Leader."

VI. Moved by JAMES WOOD, Esq., and seconded by THOMAS WALKER, Esq.,

"That this Meeting respectfully recommends to the Conference, in appointing the General Committee of the Wesleyan Theological Institution for the next year, to add to it the names of such Gentlemen resident in the North, as may be suitable to serve the office of a Local Committee, who shall be directed, in conjunction with the Officers of the Institution, to look out for a situation suitable for the purpose of an Institution-House, in the neighbourhood of Manchester; and, especially, to be in readiness to consider and report to the General Committee any offer of property that may be presented during the next year."

VII. Moved by DR. BUNTING, and seconded by the REV. ROBERT NEWTON,

"That the thanks of this Meeting are due, and are hereby presented, to the REV. THOMAS JACKSON, for the Centenary Volume which he has lately published, and for the highly satisfactory and able manner in which he has complied with the request of the Conference."

VIII. Moved by DR. BUNTING, and seconded by the REV. THOMAS JACKSON,

"That the warm and cordial thanks of this Meeting be given to JAMES WOOD, ESQ., the Treasurer of the Centenary Fund, and to the Manchester Sub-Committee, and especially to the Secretaries of that Committee, for their most able and indefatigable services to the Centenary Cause during the past year;—services to which the Centenary Fund is especially indebted, under the blessing of God, for the happy progress which has already been made in the attainment of its important objects."

IX. Moved by the REV. EDMUND GRINDROD, and seconded by the REV. JOSEPH TAYLOR,

"That this Meeting be adjourned to such time and place as the President of the Conference shall appoint."
